Hi, I went to LSU and was in AFROTC with Kevin. I'm currently stationed at Ramstein, Germany. Kevin was always super helpful and kind in college, and I can't count the mornings we'd thoughtfully discuss current events after reading the morning paper around breakfast. I'm so sorry for your family's loss.

- Greg Huete

Craig. Our sincere condolences go out to you and your family. We saw the story on the news and the Park Record as well. What a wonderful and accomplished young man with service to our country and a bit adventure in his genes. We are sure you are very proud of Kevin. We have lived in PC for the last 20 years and skied the mountain. I am sure being in the backcountry was always exhilarating. A thrill. Prayers and Blessings to you all. Bob Markmann

Kim, Craig, and Colin, I am so deeply sorry for your loss. Kevin was such an important part of my brother’s life in high school and thus, became a part of mine. I will always remember our trip to Belize with him, Friday night football at AHS, and countless hangouts at our house. I am sending my most sincere thoughts and prayers to you during this time. Please know I will remember him well, and I am here if you need anything at all.

There are no words to convey the deep sadness I feel for the loss of such a young and vibrant man as Kevin. Uncle Ron and I are so proud of all he’s accomplished in his short life. Kevin loved his family and his country and he would have worked hard to make this world a better place. Kim and Craig, you raised a fine young man and are to be commended for all the good you taught him that he then shared with the world. Kevin, you are already missed but I know Uncle Ron and your loved ones who have already passed are with you. Please let them know we miss them and cherish them with all our hearts, just as we will always cherish you. You are missed. Love, Aunt Erika

- Erika Steuterman

Words cannot console your grief. Jack's exquisite soul is eternal and while his physical body will be greatly missed, his soul will be with you, in you, guiding you and eternally loving you. - Stan Cwalinski

Craig & Kim, Collin and Steuterman Family, There are simply no words to express our sorrow for Kevin's departure to the heavens. At the end of the day, all I can think since we heard of Kevin's departure, is that Kevin lived his life to its fullest, and went to heaven living and pushing "self", doing what he loved. There is a lot of peace in that quality of life - and probably exceeds most people's way of life in a lifetime. To Karissa, many prayers and peace a you move forward. We continue to pray for your peace and that you remember the great times and memories you had together. With much love, family first, Lidbacks

- Percy and Sophia Lidback

Jack carried with him an extremely positive energy which was absolutely contagious. His upbeat attitude and easygoingness allowed anyone to feel comfortable around him. Though I didn't know him long, he and I quickly became friends at work and I can say for certain that he will be missed. Rest easy, Jack.

- Tyler Mancini

My deepest sympathy to the fiancé and family. I have very fond memories working with Kevin for a couple of years on the DSCOVR launch mission out of Kirtland AFB, NM. What and amazing young man and hard worker. Praying the Lord’s peace and comfort for you all.

- Dan Hauck

Dear Kim (Pete), Craig and the entire family, I am so saddened by your loss of such an incredible young man. His many talents, gifts, and accomplishments are a genuine reflection of who you are. You raised an incredible son. I’m

To the Family of Jack Steuterman, I send my deepest condolences for the lost of your beloved Grandson, Son, Brother, Uncle, and Cousin. You may not know me as I am a relatively new friend of Jacks. I only had the blessing to work with Jack at JDAM (Hill AFB) for a short time (of 3 months). I was the new 2Lt around. Very nervous to start my career as a Program Manager. Although it was a short time to get to know Jack. Let me tell you though. This man had a great impact on me. Like an older Brother. Jack had a calming affect on my worries and always seemed to say the perfect words of wisdom when it came to speaking to me about my worries. The personal conversations we had, golf outings on base, lunch get-togethers, College Football games we watched, and the funny jokes we cracked up laughing about in the office...will all be memories that i will never forget :). Jack made me feel so welcomed to the team and gave me such awesome advice for my career and to go for it. "Work Hard & Send it!" he would say while laughing. Jack was a true leader and i will miss him greatly. He will not be forgotten. Although gone from this plane, he is still with you all. God bless you Steuterman Family in this difficult time and know that he IS with you all! -2Lt Colton Stowe

To the family, I am so very sorry for your loss. I am sorry for my son Asa's loss also. Kevin was Asa's best friend even after college days at LSU. Kevin spent a lot of time at my home and got to eat some of his first cajun meals here, watched plenty of LSU games here, saw his first prison rodeo with us and we were so happy that he joined us on the Amtrak to DC to see my son graduate from OCS. Kevin was one of my kids while he was here. I know he was always appreciative and we loved having him around. He will be truly missed by us all. I'm so very sorry for your loss. Prayers go out to all of you.

Not many people are so motivated in their lives that they know what they want to be and have a plan to get accomplished at such an early stage. Kevin obviously was one of those unique individuals. Dear Capt Steuterman Family, Friends and Loved Ones, Jack will be sorely missed by his US Air Force and US Space Force family. His service and dedication were apparent even in the short time that he was a part of the USAF Reserves. He had just come on-board in December with USSF Space and Missile Center as a Reservist. I was immediately impressed with his articulate and engaging manner. He leaves a hole that will be hard to fill. My family and I send our sincerest condolences to you and yours, and will continue to pray for healing and support during this trying time. On behalf of a grateful nation for his service, we thank Jack and you. Very sincerely, Stan Straight Division Chief, Space and Missile Center

Kim, Terry, and family. I can’t imagine the pain you all are suffering from Kevin’s departure. As the mother of a son who spends a lot of time in the backcountry, I have to admit that I have thought about the possibility of this happening. But the reality of it is something I couldn’t let myself even imagine. I am so so sorry and send my love and prayers. I am holding you in my thoughts daily. Love, your “sista” Pam Protheroe

To Kevin's Family and Karissa, We send our deepest sympathy. We came to know Kevin through the deep friendship he shared with our son, Tim Rogers. Over the years, "Kevin stories" have become a regular part of our communications with Tim. Doug was blessed to know Kevin through the group's yearly ski trips, as well. After all the wonderful shared stories, I was able to meet Kevin face-to-face at Tim and Stephanie's wedding. Kevin was remarkable! We know the pain that comes with the loss of a son. We also know that heaven will bring us back together with our sons, and for this we patiently wait, and are eternally grateful. Rest in the comfort of the arms of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and know that our prayers cover each of you as you grieve and celebrate Kevin. Grace & Peace, Doug and Whitney French Mandeville, Louisiana

He was very fortunate to have the life he led, his loving family and friends. God bless Kevin, and all of those who loved him. May he Rest In Peace.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Steuterman, Please accept this note extending my condolences to you both on the death of your son Kevin. I am Ward Scott, the father of Tim Rogers, one of your son’s friends. I recall meeting Kevin at Tim’s wedding only 18 months ago in Las Vegas. Among the group of young men at the wedding, he was the quietest, and most introspective, but when he spoke, they all listened. He had a quiet confidence about him, not the over bearing bravado of so many his age. And I though at that time what wonderful parents he must have. Tim called me absolutely distraught upon the news of your son’s passing. Over and over he said how he tried to emulate Kevin in living his own life. He admired your son for the success he was having in his new civilian life in Utah, that he had met the right girl, and a wedding and big family was on the way. How things can change in an instant! I cant begin to imagine your sense of loss at this time, but hope that knowing the how well he was loved and respected, can be a source of comfort, and that with God’ loving presence, you can begin to heal and carry on in time.

- Ward Scott

My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

- Capt Coraviece Terry

Craig and Kim, I am deeply sorry for your loss. May god be with you now and always.
