

Kymalisa Larsen Froelich

November 18, 1963 ~ May 4, 2023

Thank you for your love kindness and friendship. We all miss you very much.

- Katie Li & Margaret Key

And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. Revelation 14:13 Rest in peace Kym ❤

- Murutasibo Afia

I’m so sorry Mark. That all happened so fast! She is an amazing woman, we will miss our random encounters. It would have been good to have spent more time together with you two, but it seems Kym’s life was very full, busy, and meaningful with all the things she had going on, and circles of family and friends.

- Bruce Cummings

Kym, Thank you for the many influences for good you have had in our lives. From Befriending Tammy in NYC in 1980 to sharing your loving friendship with Sister Bethany in Oakland while on her mission, you have touched our lives in so many ways. Mark we love you and we all look forward to a happy eternal reunion with Kym. Much Love, Larry and Tammy

- Larry & Tammy Pinnock

We are so sorry to hear about the passing of the amazing, dynamic, kind and sweet Kym. She had the best style, the best advice, the best parties and was just a salt of the earth person. We feel lucky to have been able to learn from her, to love her and to have memories of her as an amazing and talented person. Lots of love to you, Mark.

- Sam and Marielle Hayes

One of my best missionary companions ;) I love you Kym!

- Eric Paul Rogers

Mark, we are so sorry to hear this news about Kimmy! We had no idea. He was such a dear . We have seen way too many of our good friends passed on in the last few weeks . God bless you and your family as you you proceed forward.

- Vic and Kyrstne Walker

We are grateful for Kym’s sweet testimony of Jesus Christ and dedication in being a Primary teacher for our daughters. It was such a challenging time for us here in Beijing and her (and Mark’s) willingness to strengthen and support our children made a difference. We could feel their love.

- Matt and Kimmy Rowe

Hoooow? How can this be real? Sis Kym, I can still hear your voice from here and your laughter. ❤■■ I am so thankful that I get to meet you in this life time, thank you for being a mom to us when we were in China. I always admire your faith and love. Your love that can light the whole building!! Thank you for making our beijing life beautiful, Till we meet again Sis Kym and lots of love from here ■■

- Sai ❤■■■

Mark, I'm so sorry to learn of Kym's passing. I pray you and your family will be comforted by your knowledge of the gift of eternal life and the ordinances of exaltation done in the temple. Best personal regards, Ted

- Ted Harris

I was incredibly saddened to hear about the passing of your dear Kym. She was always so thoughtful and kind while I lived in Beijing. She will truly be missed. Please accept my sincere condolences.

- Isabel Berrios

Kym meet my parents, Odell and Joy Rigby, thru the young adults ward and she became a fast friend to the whole family! She was wonderful, funny, bright and beautiful! We loved the moments we had with her years ago and remember her talents including being a perfect hostess, with a kind gregarious spirit! I am so sorry for you loss!

- Jennifer Cardinal

I only had the pleasure of meeting Kym once. She came with a dear friend of mine- Renee Isler- for Sunday dinner at my house in Orlando. She had made the trip to Florida to be with Renee for her Patriarchal Blessing. I immediately felt like I knew her and she had been my friend for years. We talked about art, my dads watercolors, my antique furniture, and my moms old Russel Wright dishes! She knew about them. I’d never met anyone who knew about them. She told me a story about her moms dishes falling & breaking when a shelf fell. We ate chili and my grandkids loved her. I knew how much she loved the church and was a scripture wizard as we deeply talked about the Tribe of Judah. I gave her a hug goodbye like we were old friends. I know there must be so many that are going to miss her. And I say- remember her words & deeds- her sweet spirit and the love she had for people.

- Sandy Beatty

My sincere condolences to Mark and all of the Froelich family. I had the pleasure to meet Kym last year and discuss all of the exciting things planned for her trips to Shanghai and Utah, as well as her experiences in Beijing! Kym was always so articulate, well travelled and a pleasure to talk to. She'll be deeply missed but we can find solace in knowing she's resting peacefully in Heaven. God Bless.

- Joshua Hiller

I was shocked and speechless when knowing this news. Sister Froelich is one of the most righteous woman and knowledgeable woman that I‘ve ever meet! I am certain that she is somewhere else learning higher wisdom and knowledge. I am in deep sorrow that I didn't got a chance to physically seeing her once more, and express my deepest gratitude to the friendship we shared and all the example that she and brother Froelich set for me. IYou are so loved and will be so missed Aaron Chu

- Houan Chu

Mark….I am very sorry to hear about your loss. My condolences and thoughts and prayers are with you.

- Joseph Yawney

Mark, we are devastated by the news of Kym’s passing. We loved Kym and she was such an amazing friend and person. The world has lost a wonderful lady!!! Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Love you!❤■ Ted and Heidi

Dear Mark and family, We are so sorry for you and your family that Kym has left this earth while she was in the middle of all her many activities and loving life with you. I'm grateful that I got to visit in December of 2021 and that we got together with our mission friends in Germany last summer. (I also met up with her in Amsterdam in 2017). Her love for you was always evident and I hope it comforts you that that love is eternal. May the Spirit of comfort be with you in this sorrowful time and may Kym's light be with you always. Much love from Holland, Wendelien

- Wendelien

Dear Kym■ You have told me you were coming back to China in March. Now the spring is at the corner, but we cannot see each other again. I still cannot believe the sad news. Whenever I looked back at the times when we were together, I always felt happy. I will miss your smile, your voice, and your passion for Chinese language. I will remember your love for your family and your kindness to your friends. May you rest in peace. ■■■■■■■■■❤■ Hao laoshi

Kim was the life of the party. She was the epitome of FUN! She was sunshine! She was kind to everyone and made everyone feel important. She was soo aware of people and soo interactive, you always felt like you were her confidant and her special friend. I wish I could tell her how cool and smart I thought she was, and how much I admired her!! She was magnificent!! She will be greatly missed in so many many ways! Love you for all your magic Miss Kim!!

- Rebecca Morris

It's so hard to know what to say, as nothing feels adequate. I'm so deeply sorry for your loss. Sending love from Beijing....

- Irene Hong

Brother Froelich so sad to hear about our beloved sister Kymalisa, our family has no way of knowing what she's been through and what you've been through, but we're just saying we're so thankful for the good she's been doing as Stake Young Women president, There is also a role model for her spiritual witnessing activities. She's death makes it difficult for us to accept this fact. We love her and we pray for you and your family. May the Lord Bless you and your family peace. We do believe that she is not far from us, because Death has no way to separate our memory and love for her.

I count my blessings that I had the privilege to know Kym. Although my time with her was short, she left quite the impact on me. It was her firm testimony of the gospel of Jesus Christ that touched me the most, closely followed by her desire to give her all to every calling or task she was given. When she volunteered to give the lesson for our Beijing Temple Study Group, she spent hours preparing to edify us. And it was amazing! Every calling she was given, she put her heart and soul into it. She served as the Savior served ~ full of love. I love knowing that anyone who knew Kym, knew of her love for the Savior. She was not ashamed of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Her light shined with her always. I'll be forever grateful that she helped me purchase a Beijing creche for my sweet hubby George, for taking me on a bike ride around Beijing, and for believing in me. And most of all, I'm grateful she was my friend. She was loved immensely!

Dear Sister Kymalisa Larsen Froelich This Tuesday afternoon, I received a message in which I learned that my dear friend, who was like a teacher to me, a best friend, and most importantly a mother, had left me. In the past few days, I have almost lost my mind and suffered from insomnia. I have also started to think about the conversations Kymalisa had with me, the time when we visited the Forbidden City, the Great Wall and walked in the traditional streets of Beijing. Kymalisa had also given me encouragement and love like a mother from time to time, which brought a lot of love and warmth to my work and life. Although Kymalisa has left us, I will always remember her voice, the dialogues we had between us, and her superb cooking. The most important thing she gave me was pure and selfless love like Jesus Christ. I love you very much. PS: May we mourn with those who mourn, and may the Holy Spirit always watch over Kymalisa Froelich's family, relatives, and friends. From : Eugene Wang (Bing Hong Wang) ■Kymalisa Larsen Froelich ■■

Please accept my sincere condolences. I didn't know her very long, but I could immediately feel her passion and love for people. She will be missed. Your family will be in our thoughts and prayers. Best regards.

- Bryant

Rest in peace, my dear friend, Kymmie, and know that your legacy of joy, laughter, and passion for life will continue to inspire us all X

- Joan Lim

We send our love to your family as you navigate this sad time. We loved getting to know Kym in Beijing, and benefit from her warmth and kindness. We loved her, and will miss her. Love, The Dickens Family

- Joshua and Julia Dickens

I am saddened to hear about the loss of your beloved Kym. My heartfelt condolences to you and your family. May her love in your memories and May God give your family the strength to bear the loss. Sister Kym is a daughter who deeply loves God and God cherishes her. She lives very delicately with truth and perfection and beauty to God and people. It is a great honor to know her in this life! May she return in glory to Heavenly Father's home!

- Wei Su

Dearest Kym is an angel ■ always help people around her. She would volunteer babysitting for a new neighbor she just met, sometimes people think she is too enthusiastic but I know that's because Christ in her. She is one of the best person I knew, I don't have a role model to grew up until I met her. I wanna be a good person like her although I knew it's a long way to go. I am so sad for she is not here with us anymore, but get a bit comfort to knew she is a better place now. I love you. Ich Leibe dich. ■■■■ Until we meet again in future. May peace an love around you ❤■ ■ ■

Mark, I am so sorry for the loss of your beautiful, energetic, spiritual, faith filled, wonderful wife. She was a dear friend.! I think that everyone thought , that they were Kym's best friend! She had a way of drawing people into her circle. She was the hostess with the mostest!! And she was so tender and kind to all people. I will always remember when I was recovering from my automobile accident and needed some exercise, but couldn't really move. Well, Kym would come over every day pick me up, open the car door, help me get in the car and drive me to Steiner to swim. She didn't just drop me off. She swam with me and we talked the whole time and she made it such a happy time. When we went home, she would gather me into the car drive me home, open the car door and help me carefully upstairs to rest. She left a great void on earth, and will fill a great void in heaven. Clark and I send our love and prayers to you. We pray that he will be comforted in the coming days and years ahead! Sincerely, Kathleen, Clark , and Clark

- Kathleen Hinckley

Thank you, Kym, for living such an inspiring and exemplary life! You have touched so many people's lives for good in your all-too-short earthly adventure. I remember our first conversation in the hallway of the smelly, crowded Munich "Aufenthaltserlaubnis Amt" (residency permit office). As we semi-patiently waited for her appointment, Kym told me about her family, her dad's work at Seiko, how much she loved traveling, and her desire to learn the German language perfectly. Most new missionaries expressed primary concern (fear) about speaking to total strangers over almost everything else. Not Kym. It was evident then that sharing the good news of the Gospel with strangers wasn't going to be an issue for her. Although I was just 20, I had never met anyone quite like Kym. The self confidence she exuded in her abilities coupled with an infectious commitment to the Gospel of Jesus Christ were as plain as day. I came away from that meeting assured that Kym would be a successful missionary and that Heavenly Father had great plans for her. I'm happy to add that in the intervening 38 years since our meeting, I still haven't met anyone like Kym. Although the "No Fear" brand was still 5 years from inception, Kym could have been the founder because she represents the living embodiment of everything that statement implies. Courage to live her life the way she wanted. Strength to help those around her who lacked the necessary confidence in themselves or commitment to their principles. Leading through words and deeds when others can't or won't step up. Kym has been a marvelous example of these and many other virtues throughout our 38-year friendship. I've been the unworthy and undeserving recipient of many acts of kindness and generosity over the years. I will miss Kym dearly but will be continually inspired by the worthy legacy she leaves behind. May Father's choicest blessings continue to be with this marvelous and remarkable woman, with Mark, and with their eternal family. Love and best wishes, Brian and Liesa Tobler

- Brian and Liesa Tobler

Mark, We're so sorry for Kym's passing. It was a shock for us too when Don told me. God bless you and your family. As I write this condolence, I'm trying to figure out how to view Kym's funeral. We wish we could be there with you.

- Bill & Linda Bohn

Dear Mark and the rest of the family I know this must be a sad and difficult moment in your life. Know that words are insufficient to convey our condolences but rest assured that we pray for you and the family. May God grant her eternal rest.

- Sandy Ogunbote

Mark: I wanted too let you to know how sad I was to hear about Kym's passing. "Fancy Kymmie" burned bright, laughed loud, skied fast, loved hard, and touched everyone she met. She was a force for good and will be sorely missed.

- Kathy Schvaneveldt

Although I had met Kym on my mission years prior, the first time I got to know Kym was during my time in China. I was invited to her home for a surprise birthday dinner and had the opportunity to spend some time with Kym and Mark. I was not only taken back by how accomplished and remarkable Kym is (not was), I was moved by how she used her personal testimony of the Saviour Jesus Christ to strengthen and serve those around her. Whether through her callings, church activities or ministering to other people. Kym used her God given talent to bring members back onto the convent path. From my own observation Kym is a leader, the type of person that could lead any group, business or situation with the sole focus of helping you to become the best person you could be. Whilst the standards she lived by were high, she expected the same in others because she knew who and what they could become. Kym has left a significant impact on me and I would not be surprised, if there are thousands of others just like myself who she has impacted over the years. God be with you Kym, Mark and the family at this time. Isaiah 55: 8-9 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. I do not know why this great women has left so soon, but the Lord knows best and we must strive to accept the will of the Lord. Till we meet again! Samuel Ogunbote

Dear Mark and family, I was deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Kymalisa. She was a wonderful person who touched the lives of so many people in a positive way. Her love for life, her passion for learning, and her dedication to service were inspiring and admirable. Her loss will be felt deeply by all who knew her. Please accept my heartfelt condolences during this difficult time. I pray that you may find comfort in the memories you shared together and the knowledge that she is now with her Heavenly Parents and Savior. Kymalisa's legacy of faith, love, and service will live on through the countless lives she touched. May her example inspire all of us to live with greater purpose and devotion. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family as you navigate this difficult time. Sincerely, Amanda & Francesco Sirna

Dear Mark (Elder Froelich), Sister Powelson and I just learned of the passing of your lovely wife, Kymalisa, and want to express our love and sympathy to you and your family at this difficult time. I believe we met her several years ago at one of our missionary reunions. Reading her obituary and the heartfelt tributes about her, she was certainly a lovely and talented person and wonderful companion to you. Mark, I will always be indebted to you and Elder Hal Andersen for being my first Assistants to the President (trainers) as Sister Powelson and I embarked on our service as Mission President in Taipei so many years ago (July 1979). We were young, had a large family, didn't speak Mandarin or understand the Taiwan culture. We had a lot to learn and you were a large part of getting us 'oriented'. Thank you again so much for all you did for us. We are going to try to see you tomorrow as you and your loved ones pay tribute to your lovely wife. If you would like to get in contact with me or if I can ever be of any service to you, my contact information is: Phone: 801-592-8465, Email: dhpowelson@hotmail.com, Address: 145 West Hidden Hollow Circle, Orem, Utah 84058 May the Lord bless you. Sincerely, President Powelson

- Douglas H. Powelson

Mark, It was sad to hear your loss. It was also our loss. Mei-Lin and I are so thrilled to know Kim and you. Kim’s warm greeting, sunny smiles, and tireless help to the 7th branch in Oakland, as well as her firm commitment to the gospel and being our friends, are cherished in my heart. Missing Kim and you sorely.

- Jacob Chu

Oh Kym, you will be so missed. You truly were one of the most beautiful souls I have ever had the privilege of meeting and getting to know both you and your amazing husband Mark. Two people I can honestly say I love and adore.

- Jonathan Cloward

I just got this sad news… ■■■ I can't even believe it's real. I thought we still have time to meet again and I could introduce you the beautiful travel route in China. ■ I missed the time when we were in Taiwan and biked to museum and traditional market that afternoon. We had awesome time from tasted the ice cream and butterfly cookies. I really thought we would meet really soon since the China lockdown is over and we could hang out again. ■ Dear Kym, thank you so much for cared for me and guided me when I got lost. Thank you for shared your love and time with me. My heart will always have a special space for you cute, lovely, kind lady. It's always comfortable and happy when we were around you. ■ You will always be missed and loved. ■ Dear Mr. Froelich, please take good care of yourself. I really wanna meet you again. (big hug) I know it's a very hard time for you. We are all here for you. ■

- Tammy Wang

It's really a big shock to me when hearing this...I still remember the happy and sweet smile when Kym was telling me about her story with Mark, those posters she made to celebrate Mark's birthday in our office, the cookies she brought to us on the holidays... So many sweet and warm memories she gave us! She was always so nice and kind to people around her, that's why we all like her and became very good friends soon. Kym, you always have a special place in my heart! I miss you...

- Hellen

Sweet Kym, I only met you briefly, but I loved you immediately. You were such a vibrant, kind soul. You are definitely onto grander adventures for sure, but my heart is sad for your family that will be parted from you for a time. Go do some good. Til we meet again.❤■

- Jenedy Paige

Dear Mark, It saddens me to learn of Kymmie's passing. Though I never had the pleasure of meeting her, knowing you from our bike rides around Beijing over the years, I can only begin to imagine the similarities she shared with you, and the profound and positive impact she had on you and those around you - which I am sure remains. My thoughts are with you, and your loved ones.

- Jan Brughmans

I love all the furniture Kym selected, I remember the hot and beautiful decorated hot chocolate powder Kym made and shared to us; and of course I remember her hug, the smiling face come cross to me at Nuo avenue. I feel sad knowing her pass, and I'm super grateful for knowing you two in my life! You're right, she is a light to everyone including me. Please accept my condolences for your lost, Mark, and she will be happy in the heaven.

- Cathy Zhang

I can’t believe this has actually happened! I am coming to Utah soon and was planning to be in touch with her to go to the temple! Mark and Don, I am so sorry! I am sitting here crying at her loss! I am only glad that her suffering was brief and I am sure that she is happy to be reunited with Nonie! God bless you in her absence from this earth!

- Zan Firmage

Dear Mark, We were very sorry to hear of Kym’s recent passing. We are currently serving a mission in Hungary and only heard the sad news today. We send our heartfelt condolences to you and your family. We cannot imagine the pain of losing your dearest friend. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you. Kym will be missed by many! Warm Regards, Kathryn and Russ

- Kathryn and Russ Gilger

R.I.P. Kym! My deepest condolences to Mark, whom I had the honor to work with on a Shanghai Project. I met Mark and Kym in HK when they stopped over briefing and enjoyed a joyful evening together .. Kym was warm and funny and graceful. Praying for Mark and the family in this time of lost…. But Hope for Reunion one day in God’s Eternal Home… soon!

- Anthony NG (Hong Kong)

I met Kym in Beijing out side Mark's office, she friendly introduced herself and we began to talk. She had a cheerful spirit and we laughed at our silly talk. She was passionate about art and love to share with everyone. Dear Kym, although our encounter was brief, my heart had been touched by you. I will miss you forever. Kai Li
