

Jon D Conover

March 25, 1954 ~ March 20, 2020

Jon was a good friend. His passing came too soon. It’s sad to see him go. My sympathies and best wishes to the family members.

- Paul Hicken

Awesome big brother friend example fun energized caring instructing and many more admirable traits thanks for the years save me a spot

- Kim

Uncle Jon was incredibly intelligent and passionate for learning. In every conversation he would bring up his kids: what they were doing, their successes, and their future plans. I love you Uncle Jon! Thanks for your kindness. You are missed.

- Cameron Conover