Our Thoughts and Prayers are with you we love you

- Steve Chaffin

I am so sorry to hear about LaMar. I came to know Grandpa LaMar as one of the most loving and kind men I've ever met. From our walks outside with a piece of grass in our mouth to our conversations about school and advice about girls, he never failed to show the love he had for me. Even as time went on and it became difficult for him to remember some things, I knew that love he had for me wasn't gone. Grandpa LaMar truly is one of the best people I have ever had the privilege of knowing. I simply can't wait to see him again one day in heaven. With a Love striving to match the Love he showed, Elder Matthew Seal
