

Leonard George Wells

April 7, 1964 ~ January 7, 2021

We are so very sorry for your loss. Such shocking news. We love you & are praying for your family. ❤ Mike & MaryAnn Carter

- MaryAnn Carter

I am so sorry for your loss, prayers to your family. I haven't see Leonard in years but still have fond memories from High School.

- Roy Yuill

We are very sorry for your loss. Leonard was a good friend and great coworker. He made work fun and taught me (Jeremy) a lot. He will truly be missed! Our thoughts are with you and your family at this time.

- Jeremy & Julie Livsey

Ester and Kara I’m thinking of you praying for you and feeling your loss. It was a privilege to know Leonard. His smile his laugh and ability to make everyone else smile and laugh with him was a gift: Grief has so many twists and turns but I like to think heaven is the way we’re remembered. And Leonard is very well remembered.

- Julie Fox

Lenny worked with us for 27 years. He was such a good and smart person. There was only one Lenny in the world. Glad we had him in our life. Dave and Liz

- Dave and Liz Fox

Esther, I was heartbroken to hear the news. I remember meeting Len, very humble and gracious just like you. You have my prayers for you and your whole family and of course, your husband. Much Love, John and Bernie Marron, + Family.

- John F Marron

So very sorry for your loss Esther. I know it is hard, but you will be together again. My love and prayers for comfort to you and your family.

- KIRSTEN FARR

Leonard and I lived in the same ward, went to Jr High and High school together. Leonard was a great friend and will be missed. I will especially miss his comments on FB as I always looked forward to reading them.

- Marcus Rood

Leonard was an awesome guy to have around. An electrical genius. He will be missed on the job sites. My deepest condolences to the loved ones he always spoke of on a daily basis. May he Rest In Peace with his son and watch over you.

- Kody Griggs

Dear Wells Family, We are very saddened to hear of Leonard's passing. Shane fondly remembers Leonard's positivity and jokes when they worked at Electracor together, and we all cherish the opportunities we had to spend time gaming with Alex and other friends. Lots of love to you, Shane Holt & Sara Staples Holt

- Shane Holt & Sara Staples Holt

We had some memorable times, you'll be messed, its unfortunate things ended the way they did RIP my friend

- John Holliday

Sorry for your loss

- Mark Koch