BOYD'S PROWESS AS HUNTER AND FISHERMAN CAN NEVER BE OVERSTATED. AT ONE TIME THE DESERET NEWS WILDLIFE EDITOR BILL EWER WROTE AN ARTICLE ABOUT JERRY ZABRISKIE BEING UTAH'S BEST FISHERMAN . HAVING FISHED WITH BOTH BOTH BOYD AND JERRY MANY TIMES AND BOYD ALWAYS CAUGHT THE MOST FISH. SO I ASKED JERRY IF HE WAS UTAH'S BEST FISHERMAN WHY DOES BOYD ALWAYS CATCH THE MOST FISH AND HE LAUGHED AND SAID BECAUSE BILL EWER HAD NEVER GONE FISHING WITH BOYD.

"Uncle" Boyd, you were the best!!!! I am sure that you and my dad are causing a ruckus wherever your spirits are right now. You were his best friend, his favorite hunting, fishing and camping buddy, and I know he wishes he would have done more of that with you. You loved your wife and daughters in a way that everyone could see, they are amazing women and I think a lot of that is because of the person you were. I want to thank you for the memories that I have of all of those adventures with you and your family and mine. You will be missed by so many for so many reasons that one alone cannot list them all. I Love you Uncle Boyd, CHEERS to you and may your soul be felt by all those you have left behind. Robbin

I am so sorry for the loss of your dad, Sheri, Kris, and Melanie. I never got to know him well. But, I always thought he was so cute. I remember being at your home a couple times, and even walking by your home, and seeing your dad outside practicing with his bow. I always thought that was the coolest thing ever. I’m sure he used that bow for hunting. That’s a good memory I have of him. He was always so nice to me. I know you will always miss him. Memories are what you hang onto. Hold them close to your heart and you’ll feel your dad’s presence. Much Love
