

Lloyd Francis Taylor Jr

April 16, 1943 ~ April 13, 2026

Dear Taylor Family, Our office noted with sadness the passing of your loved one, Lloyd, and we wish to send our condolences and sincere sympathy to you and your family at this time of bereavement. As a member of Weber State University's extended family, friends and associates will miss him. While we realize a condolence letter cannot lessen your sense of loss, we want to let you know that his achievements and contributions were appreciated at Weber State University. Sincerely, Nancy B. Jen I'm so very sorry for the loss of your dad. He sounds like a wonderful dad and a fun person to be around. My prayers for you and your family. I also am one of eight kids it's the best life to have. RIP Soldier boy and thanks so much for your service.

Dear Taylor Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Lloyd was a lovely man. He has been so kind to me and to my family over the years. I will never forget one night in 1985 when he let my dad (Homer Furgason) and I (I was 14) use the hoist in his carport to replace the engine in my dad's 1960 Studebaker; or, 20 yrs later, when he noticed how I always parked in the farthest corner of the church parking lot, he gently put his arm around me and told me I didn't need to be ashamed of my car or anything else when I came to church. He was so good to my children, too. I will always count Lloyd as one of my dearest friends. I will miss him until we meet again. May his memory always bring you comfort. Sincerely, Lana Furgason Michaelson
