

Lon Dale Secrist

February 21, 1948 ~ March 15, 2024

I knew Lon just he was described his obituary. I was one class behind Lon at Viewmont High. Though I am about one year younger than Lon, he always treated me with kindness, respect and as a friend. My condolences to his family. I'm certain there is a void left by the passing of such a wonderful man.

We were brokenhearted with the passing of Lon. He has been a great friend that I have always admired. He was such a genuine and caring man. We would often talk together about the similar heart issues that we both had. Connee and I are so sorry that we can't be there for his funeral, but our grandson Colton (Scott and Anneliese's son) will be married that morning at the Saratoga Springs Temple at 11:15AM. Is there any way that Larkin Mortuary will be recording the service? We would love a link to view it later in the day. We have a luncheon at 3PM, and the reception at 6PM all in Eagle Mountain. We miss seeing you Ann and each member of your family. Please accept our deepest sympathies for your this tragic loss.

Oh, how sad. Another cousin passing away. It seems just a little while ago I was talking with him at Lee's funeral. I enjoyed spending time with him at Tuttle family events.

I was the banker for Lon and his friend and associate Harold Turley. I first met Lon in about 1981. From that time Lon became a friend. In my almost 50 year career in banking Lon is one of only a small handful who I would totally trust. Whatever Lon said he would do, he did. What a tremendous example he was to me and all those who were fortunate enough to know him. Blessings to his family in this time of loss.

I have been friends with Lon Secrist for over 65 years and knew him well. Our experiences together were extraordinary. Lon was amazingly fun to be with, so kind, so generous and well respected by just about anyone who knew him. Lon knew early in his life what he wanted and demonstrated his ability to work hard but he also knew how to work smart. Those qualities combined with his determination and perseverance allowed Lon to enjoy success in his family life and in his businesses … successes he richly deserved. I will miss him.

Lon was such a dear friend and has had such a huge impact on my life. Lon served as my Bishop when my wife and I got married and Lon & Ann even hosted a wedding open house at their home. He was like a father to me, always with perfect advice, wise counsel and always with a positive outlook. Lon had such a welcoming and warm heart and was always so supportive, kind and helpful. I will sure miss running into him at Jazz games and all of his counsel on phone calls. If I ever grow up, I want to be just like Lon. He had life figured out, and I will cherish the lessons he taught me and his example to me.

Lon was one of the most kind, loving and generous people we have ever met. He was such a good friend to my husband Jack. He brought joy into peoples lives with his warm smile, and went about doing good, as did the Savior. He was a great blessing in everyone's lives, and will be dearly missed. We send our love and deep sympathy. Kathy Airmet and family

We’ve known Lon for over 20 years. From the very first time we met him, we instantly loved him. Every time we ever saw him, he always had the biggest smile and would make a point to come visit with us and ask how we were. He had a quick wit and humor that was so enjoyable. He was the most genuine and giving individual we’ve met. Our hearts go out to his family and the wonderful legacy he has left behind. He will be dearly missed.

We were shocked to hear that Lon had died. Ann we know you are heart broken. We understand the loss you must feel. Lon filled the room with that million dollar smile and cheerful countenance. He will be missed and yet he is near to you! Be still and you will hear and feel him close by.

Lon was one of my best friends. We worked together in the library. We had lots of time to talk. When I came home from hospital he called me to discuss our issues. We had similar breathing problems. I was very saddened when I heard he passed away. I give my best to Ann and his children. If I can help with anything let me know. Tom & Debbie Sorensen
