My deepest condolences to Mr. Thorpe and family, I was blessed with having shared a couple of occasions with Lonni and her family. I had always wanted to meet the women who raised Adam. My wish came true and I met Lonni and Lear in Los Angeles several years ago. It was love at the first site for me. I felt like I have known them all my life. Lonni was one of those people who imbodied light, love and grace with in her. I am forever grateful for having shared another occasion with Lonni and her entire wonderful family in Utah. I am most certainly grateful to her for loving, and embracing Jeanette into her family. May you all be comforted by her love, light and grace during this difficult time. Love, Eskedar
