

Lorri Ann Webb Henseler

November 6, 1963 ~ February 4, 2021

My heartfelt sympathy to Art, Janice (my sister) and family of Lorri. She was an inspiration to all she met and knew her. Her spirit will live on in all those memories. She was a blessing to you and you to her. Your care and love were what she needed to be herself. My prayers and thoughts will be with you always and precisely as you go though this difficult time. My love and prayers, Wanda Anderson

My deepest & sincere condolences for the painful loss of Lorri. I am so grateful she was my cousin and am completely heartbroken. I Loved her with all my heart and am so deeply saddened that we were unable to spend more time together. We were the same age and I remember as kids we would play and have such good times. When she lived in the same neighborhood as I did, I'd put all my Barbie stuff in a wagon and wheel it to her house and we'd play for hours. As young teens we'd have sleep overs and sing using our hairbrushes as ■ and sing to Shaun Cassidy's Da Do Ron Ron Ron Da Do Ron Ron. After learning of her passing I seriously cannot get that song out of my head. Those were the best of times and are great memories I will Treasure & Cherish Forever. I was so happy to be reunite with Lorri later in life on the few occasions we were able to get together. I will Forever and Always Love and miss Lorri. I had hoped we could spend more time on my visits to Utah and am so heart sick that those future times will no longer be possible, it just breaks my heart and hurts more than words can express. I am truly grateful for the times and the long conversations we had. I have Lorri and her family in my heart and prayers. I wish I were in Salt Lake to be there and hug all of you. xoxo May God Bless and Comfort you all at this time and bring Peace to your hearts. I Love you all.■

We are so sorry and saddened by Lorri"s passing. We have so many great memories going on the motorcycles and glamping as we called it. Sturgis ride in 2013 when Art hauled all our stuff in his trailer. The NODD events and her tru passion for that. Art, Aunt Sandy and Candace our hearts break for you. Art you were so devoted, loving and caring to her. Our prayers are with all of you and always will be.

I have many fond memories of JROTC mom Lori. She spent many hours supporting many of our activities and many of them would have not been as successful without her support. She set a super high bar with her relationship with our program. I am sad to hear of her passing and wish peace to all those she leaves behind.

Our condolences and thoughts go out to Art and Candace, to Sandy and Lynn. Lori was a woman to be loved, admired and respected. She accomplished so many things in the time she was with us. We will dearly miss her in our family but Lori will always be in our hearts.

My Heart is breaking over the loss of Lori. When I seen this all I could think of was my best Friend Sandy & the Heartache I knew she was enduring. I know Lori is in a better place and pain free now and I also know it was her time. Something was told to me once when I lost a Loved one suddenly. It really helped me to accept this loss. I hope it will help you Sandy, Ed, & Bart. Art My prayers are for you for the lost of your lovely Wife. May God Bless you and comfort you along with Sandy and the boys. So this is what was told to me and I hope it will help you all. God took Lori home as she had completed what she was put here to do. Art God is going to take you down another path in your life now and Lori can't go on that path with you as she completed what she was put here to do but you still have something to do. Thank the Lord for we know you will see her again one day but for now keep your memories alive in your heart. May God Bless all of you with comfort and strength to help you get through what your have to endure right now. He loves you all and will be with you during this difficult time. Amen Sandy We've know each other a long long time and I wish I could be there to support you in your time of need but I am with you in my Heart. I love you my Friend and sending prayers to you to be comforted and know I'd be there if I could. I love you all. Beverly G Casper
