Grandma, you'll never know how much your life impacted my own. All that I have, all that I Love, my family and friends are all because of your sacrifice. I've not been the perfect grandson but YOU loved me Unconditionally. That's something I'll never forget or something I'll ever be able to replace. I know God called You to help with granpo so I'm excited your home with him an my mom as well. Watch over us. I'm so very thankful for every moment, all the sweet things you did for me and my sister. You were My Miracle.
