I am so saddened by the passing of Lynne and will miss seeing her each Monday, she always brought a smile and a encouraging thought to brighten up my day. Janice and I will miss her, and our fun visits together. Carmela.

Hey Lynne my friend! We sure had a great time talking and remembering our missions in Harrisburg together. And just discussing the miracles each of us have received in regard to our health. The Spirit was present a lot of the times we were together right?! It was my privilege to have the opportunity getting to know you over the last year. I pray to know you in the Eternities; that I will be faithful enough. I am happy that you are pain free, have a perfect body now and are doing the Lord's work on the other side of the Vail. Enjoy the reunion with your family and friends who have passed before, then get to work. I love you my friend!

I'm sorry for our loss of our neighbor and friend, Lynne. She was friendly and easy to visit with. I always enjoyed her testimony and felt her spiritual strength radiate from her. She will be missed. I know she was met with open arms and an abundance of love up from our Savior and her loved ones that have gone before. God bless!

Lynne, I miss you already! I’m so blessed to get to know you. I’m sorry I didn’t meet you earlier in life, however, we are forever friends. You have a passion for life and the gospel of Jesus Christ. Your desire to help others is great; that was shown in your sweet service in the Temple. There’s nothing better than serving Heavenly Father’s children, whether friends, family, or through the Temple. Your kindness to Michelle and me was wonderful. We both enjoyed your friendship and being with you. It will be so sweet when we meet again in heaven. I’m sure the Lord is keeping you busy helping others. I love you deeply and forever. ‘Til then. ♥■♥■♥■

We loved Lynne so much! We met her while serving at the U Of U Branch at the hospital. We were so blessed to have gotten to know her and who she is about. What a beautiful, righteous good woman. We are sure she is enjoying her wonderful reunion with her mother, and those who have been waiting for her in heaven. We wish you and your family comfort and peace at this time.
