I have fond memories of Lynn and know she and my mother and father were special friends with her and Joel. Now they are all together up in heaven I'm sure having a great time. My sincerest condolences thoughts and prayers to your family. I know that separation is tough.

This was a shock. I am sorry that I didn't get another opportunity to tell you thank you and express my love and appreciation for you and your family. You made me feel loved, supported, and encouraged during a critical time in my life. I have looked back often and realize how crucial that support was. I love and appreciate you. I look forward to seeing you after this probationary time to prepare. There is much to look forward to. You are beautiful in so many ways. Thank you, so much.

Lynne and I met when we started our Relief Society callings in the LDS Church. She was the education Counselor. I was called as Humanitarian Counselor. We soon became very good friends. We shared many conversations about the unusual but similar traits of my Dad and Lynne’s husband, Joel. I would tell her “Dad” stories and she would amusingly say, that sounds like something Joel would do. We laughed a lot over many things. She had such marvelous insight and would often help me understand people . I am so thankful that I commissioned Lynne to paint me a water color painting. She was so talented. I will certainly miss her and look forward to being with her again on the other side.
