

Cecil Albert Reinsch

September 29, 1927 ~ July 22, 2020

Cecil was such a wonderful leader on the 5-day-backpacking hikes at Camp Ritchie. I was a YW camper for 5 years then returned as a camp counselor for another 5 years while in college for those 5 day hikes. Cecil wore a smile, had something positive & uplifting to say, and nearly infinite patience with these young women (& their counselors) on these 5th year hikes each year. He was so knowledge & so fun. We knew he loved us, and we knew he really loved the Lord. What a darling man. He will be missed, but I imagine a glorious reunion with dear sweetheart, Glynna. Prayers for comfort & peace to all his family at this tender time. ♥■

I remember your parents well and was so impressed with their church service as missionaries. Now they are on their next mission together. I'm thinking of you at this time because after the last parent dies, you suddenly feel like an orphan. I miss seeing you. I hear about your children through our children. I hope we can get together soon. Much love at this tender time!

We lived across the street in Gilroy, so our siblings were friends with their children and grew up together. Cecil always had a smile no matter what the situation and friendly handshake to share. He was fun to be around and a good example at all times. He will be missed, but I am glad he is with his dear wife Glynna now. All my love to each member of your family. Scott

I am sorry to see about the passing of Cecil. We worked many years together at the City of Gilroy, we were a family at work for him in addition to his family at home. He was a kind and gentle person, very family minded and religious.

I'm thinking about Brother Reinsch today. He and Sister Reinsch were always so willing to drive a van full of youth to the stake dances and other activities. I'm remembering a night when we were on the way home from an Oakland Temple Pageant rehearsal or performance. It was late, everyone was quiet, and Brother Reinsch began singing, "And when ye shall receive these things." The Spirit was very sweet.
