

Makayla Ann DeBoer Maynes

October 20, 1995 ~ November 8, 2020

Chad, I am so sorry that you have to go through this difficult time! Parents should never have to bury their Children! Prayers as you go through this difficult journey --- May God Bless you at this time and in the days to come...

- Kathryn Orth

I had the privilege of knowing Makayla for a short time while taking care of her at Primary Children's Hospital, but she is a patient I will remember forever. Makayla was the kind of patient and person that gave me purpose as one of her doctors. I loved taking care of her and I know that everyone else who had that pleasure felt the same way. Whenever I came into her room, Makayla would greet me with a smile, no matter what was going on. She was truly a ray of sunshine, and a strong, glorious human being. She was the kind of person that our world needs more of, and I feel so lucky that our paths crossed, even if just for a short time. Her memory will always be a blessing to me, and one that I hold in my heart.

Mckayla, i love you and miss you so much.... Im so glad and blessed you came into myufe and we became friends and were co workers at black turtle. Glad we stayed friends after we werent working there anymore. Blessed we were and continued to be friends and are still to this day. I miss you so much and pray you always watch over us forever.... Im glad your free from pain.... Cant waut to see you on the other side in heaven.... To McKayla's family.. . especially her dear sweet mom ! Mckayla is and was a beautiful soul. She is a dear friend and i wish i had been able to take more time to hang out when she reached out. Thought we had more time... Im so sorry ! Know that i love her and love you and your family.

So sorry to hear about your loss! Wish I could express works that would make the pain go away but I know there aren't words in times like this when someone is lost at such a young age. Our prayers go out to you and your family.

- Gordon Russell

My condolences go out to both Kristin and Chad thier spouses and Makayla's siblings and her Grandparents. You are all suffering from a terrible loss . We all are. She was a very loving and thoughtful young lady . She brought out the best in people. I am her Grandmothdr's sister and Chad's Aunt . I helped her make a blanket and a purse when she was spending time with her Grandma Ivanna . All she talked about after completing her blanket was how she wanted to make Tanner and Lacey one to. Sorry to say she would never beable to see that dream become a reality . Your obituary was lovely . You both should be very proud of yourselves and the dignity you have shown your daughter. You have been so busy these past weeks and having to make some of the most difficult decisions in your life . I am sorry for all that you have had to go thru , I know it has not been easy for either of you . I just want you both to know that you have done a fantastic job. I am sure you have not really been able to grieve yoursels. Just know family will always be there for you . I am so so sorry for your loss. With love Aunt Sharon

Brian - I was deeply saddened to learn of your daughter's passing. My heart is with you. You have lots of wonderful people around you to support you and lift you up. Please let me know if there is anything - anything - that I can do for you and your family.

- Ernie Nielsen

Brian, It is difficult to express my heartfelt thoughts and "wishes" for you. What a beautiful life and tribute. There is no doubt you will miss her for a season, but I know you will see her again in a glorious family reunion.
