This was - and still IS - one of the best people around! He always had a good word to say about folks, even when I didn't. His smile would light up the entire area where he was, and I know he is lighting up a great deal of Heaven now. I hope he hugs my two grandsons for me, if he hasn't already. What a super awesome guy, SO very glad he could bless this earth with his presence. Heavenly Father is calling some of His truly best back Home, my condolences to y'all who will miss him along with so many others. Until we meet again, my friend and cousin. My you feel the peace which only God can give.
