

Jane Beecher Yeates

April 11, 1942 ~ December 11, 2025

Our prayers and love are with your family during this difficult time.

- Anna & Tyler Cole

To Janie’s family, my sincere sympathy for your and my loss. Janie and I grew up together as cousins. We were always very close, and had just spoken on her birthday, which we each did on the others BD. She’s with a lot of family.

- Hyrum Smith

My deepest condolences to the Yeates family for their loss. I had the pleasure of meeting Jane and being welcomed into her family and home. She was always so warm and funny, and I truly enjoyed spending time with her—especially visiting her beautiful home in what I fondly called “gingerbread house land.” Jane will be deeply missed.

- Karla Delgado

To your family, Jane, I know their loss is tremendous but in my heart I feel that you are not gone. You have only moved on and are still alive in their hearts. My love goes to your family who will miss you forever. Your cousin Carol

- Carol Beecher

Dear Allyson, and Jane's family, Barbara and I send our deep sympathy at this time of your loss and grief. You are in our hearts. We too miss my remarkable cousin, her competence and contributions, and her joyful, generous, uplifting, and inspiring spirit and legacy. We relish our memories of times together. May you also soon be able to focus on your beautiful memories of lady Jane.

- John Hager

We will so miss Janie. Her love, joy, caring, generosity and enthusiasm knew no bounds. We enjoyed every minute we got to share with her. From sitting and watching TV to making jars and jars of apricot jam. She is firmly embedded in our hearts. We will always love her.
