I thoroughly enjoyed getting to know Maribeth when Michael passed away. I was able to sit down with her for quite a while and loved getting to know her, her story and her positive attitude despite circumstances. We shared several phone calls since and always had great conversation. My condolences to your family at her passing. What an incredible lady!

This was beautiful to read. What an accomplished wonderful woman. I hope I meet her on the other side.

My dad had a saying on his desk I vividly remember : Greater than Gold of Kings are Memories of Happy Things!! So many great memories of Michael and Merideth and Family. I was fortunate in my travels to be able to stop by the house with just a short notice and they were always so gracious with there time and often fed me as I was passing through to my many destinations . Passing on Pioneer Day is so appropriate for Maribeth Love you all Mikes cousin Steve Clarke the brother he never had and my older brother I never had

- Steve Clatke cousin to Mike

To Maribeth's family - Though the connection wasn't good enough to hear the whole funeral by zoom, I did get Maribeth's message of how she loved life in spite of physical trials! She had many of the physical problems my own sister has and so my heart went out to Maribeth! We love her so much and she had a great impact on our children when she was a Primary President here in Rexburg. Maribeth was so humble, a fabulous cook (I have some of her recipes and yet she asked for help once in Relief Society learning how to make pie crusts). She was also a professional seamstress, a great leader and compassionate friend. One year when I was ill, Maribeth cooked my family a whole Thanksgiving meal in the Rick's College kitchen! What an over the top amazing woman! And then she sewed a dress for me when one of my children were married. Maribeth was always ready and willing to fill a need. We will always remember our dear friend Maribeth! The Lord surely loves her! May you feel His peace as you bid a temporary farewell to your beloved Maribeth!
