I will always treasure the many memories of your wonderful mom. When your dad didn't feel up to attending a basketball or football game, Marilyn often offered that ticket to me. BYU couldn't have had a better Cougar Club fan. Her enthusiasm was always so contagious! We attended Pioneer Memorial plays together, and girl trips to the wonderful home in Ivins were always the best of times. Your mom's epitome to fitness was remarkable. For many years we walked the back roads in Wellington, Utah, at least five miles six days a week. Her testimony of our beloved Savior was never questioned. She was always solid in her convictions; a true disciple of Christ. I am so grateful for the forever friendship we share. She will be missed deeply. Love, Sharyn

I have such a deep appreciation for exemplary women. I feel truly fortunate to have met Sister Marilyn Curtis and to have shared some special one-on-one time with her—driving from Rincon to Jacksonville, then enjoying a meal with Tami upon arrival. This was during her visit to Mike and Tami’s family in Georgia. I especially remember how vibrant she was in those days—jogging, running, and tending her garden with such energy and grace. More than anything, she left an indelible impression on me of love, kindness and service, quietly taught through the way she lived. A widow once told me that "silence is the hardest thing". Marilyn's example shines still! -- Sincere condolences, Sandy Traub, Georgia USA
