

Marinus Cornelis Boogert

Oct. 16, 1928 ~ Jan. 4, 2022

Virginia, I just happened upon this obituary while looking for someone else. I am so sorry to hear of Marinus' passing. Know that our hearts go out to you and your family. We have such fond memories of both of you. Love, Frank and Kriste

Sorry for your loss. Couples dieing close together, I think, is what most couples want.

In dankbaarheid herinneren we ons familielid en vriend, Rinus. Marinus en Virginia waren eregasten op onze bruiloft in Voorburg, in 1991. Onze huwelijksreis ging naar Amerika. De familie liet ons veel moois zien van Utah, Californie, Arizona e.d. In weekend was het huis van Rinus en Virginia aan de Romana Avenue onze huisbasis. Als zij in nederland waren, logeerden ze o.a. bij Miekas vader en moeder. Nu weer samen met je allerliefste Virginia. Rust zacht en in vrede lieve beste vriend.

Remembering Marinus and Virginia as they visited us as family members in Amsterdam. Still his pictures give me memories of his and my Dutch family in the specific Boogert facial features. Marinus will also be missed here.

- Hermanus Marinus Dingeman van den Boogert

We love Marinus and Virginia. Meindert is also from the Netherlands and we moved in to the Foothill 2nd Ward shortly after we were married. The Boogert's took us right under their wing, especially Marinus with Meindert who was investigating the church at the time. He made sure to reach out often and make him feel welcome. They spoke Dutch with one another and built a great friendship. When Meindert joined the church and advanced in the priesthood, Marinus was there and participated in the ordinance. We enjoyed oliebolle with them and any Dutch tradition we could in their home. We love them both dearly and feel blessed to have had their optimism and relentless faith as our examples. Sending love and prayers your way as you transition as a family with them now on the other side.
