

Marlene Dee Howe

October 14, 1934 ~ August 5, 2025

She sounded like an amazing woman, I’m happy that she is now at peace in a better place, and that she’s so lucky to have been surrounded by a strong and loving family. May you rest in peace Grandma Howe

- Hannah Fredrickson

Sending heartfelt condolences to all the family. She was such a warm, joyful person and will be deeply missed. Much love to you all at this difficult time!

- Nancy Whiting Glover

I’m so sorry for your loss. Your grandmother sounds like a wonderful person who was full of life, love and purpose. 90 years of music, family and passionate involvement in the world is an incredible legacy. I hope your family finds comfort in the memories and in knowing how many lives she touched. Thinking of you all during this time.

- Rachel Collins

Sending healing prayers and comfort during this tough time. ■■

- Eric and Betty Wood

Thank you for writing about your wonderful mother. She sounds like a wonderful human being, the kind who makes the world far better by working hard to be a great person.

- Dan Milliron

We are very sorry for your loss. With Deepest Sympathies. Lillian and John Pontacolone

- Lillian & John Pontacolone

I am the young child of Grant and Loria McKinney. Please except my warmest condolences to the family for their loss.

- Shannon McKinney

I’m so sorry for your loss. I hope that the Lord spirit is with you so that you will know of his great love for you and for your mother. Our sincere condolences. Love the Linford’s.

- Mac Linford

I loved her very much. My deepest condolences for your loss. She is in a good place with family.

- Daron McKinney

I was sorry to hear of the illness and passing of your dear mother. She joined our ward choir a few times for performances, and she definitely raised the bar for the rest of us! I also enjoyed her happy, outgoing personality when she came to visit our ward with Cyndy. May the Lord send peace to your hearts until you are with her again.

- Vicki Dew