MaryJane, you have and will be missed by my entire family. A great neighbor, friend and additional grandparent to our children. Your saw the bright side of everything and found Jesus at work in all things. Condolances to Mark, Pam, Jim, Kerri and all the boys

May you rest in peace Mrs Cody. My sincere condolences to your family. Thank you Mrs Cody you were such an amazing educator not only teaching our children the fundamentals but teaching them kindness and showing them unconditional love! You were such a joyous part of our years at St Ann! She was always so positive she told me at Parent/Teacher conference's for my daughter Aileena "she is like a sponge she absorbs everything" .and then at conferences for my son John she told me "what doctor has neat handwriting" because of his sloppy handwriting.. lol no one is perfect but God but your sure came close! You will truly be missed and remembered forever! A special thank you to your boys for sharing such an amazing person with us! Sending love and prayers the Carney/Martinez family ■■■

This is a beautiful sentiment to how wonderful your mom was. She gave so much time to others and I have some great and fun memories with her at St. Anns. Thoughts and prayers to you all. .

Mrs. Cody was my teacher at St. Ann's back in the early 2000's. She was a remarkable woman who was so kind and patient. She truly cared and loved for each of her students. I'll never forget her teaching us "Jesus loves me" AND how to sign the words. My condolences to her loved ones.

Mrs. Cody was one of my favorite teachers when i was in second grade. My mother Dawn remembers helping with the breakfast for confirmation. I was saddened when Mr. Cody passed away just as I am with Mrs. Cody. May they rest peacefully together with the Lord.

So sorry to read that you've passed away, but deeply grateful to have known you and been taught by you. Every time I got to church, I make sure to genuflect before getting into the pew so you don't get mad at me. ■ Sleep warm, Mrs. Cody, and thank you for everything. ■
