The sweetest lady I have ever known. She raised such a beautiful family. I am so grateful she is Dean's mom. He is a reflection of her loving soul. She may now be in a better place with her husband and her children who have passed. I love her so much from afar. She will teach the angels. May peace and comfort fill her family during this difficult time. The thought of the plan of salvation gives me chills of its existence. I love the Ellis family. They have always made me feel the extension of their love. Dean I love you for being such a phenomenal husband, father, brother-in-law and co-parent with Erika for my children. Your mother and father were so Christlike. My deepest condolences and prayers for comfort and closeness to the Godhead. There are not words to describe the love and respect u have always had for your mother. With much love, DIANNA

Mary Ellis was so very kind to our family when we moved in. Mary and my Mom became good friends and they were visiting teaching companions. Mary would make the appointments because my Mom couldn't hear over the phone. My Mom would prepare the lesson. Mary would bring us her homemade chocolate chip cookies which were not only delicious, but nutritious, made with oatmeal! She always had a smile and was so positive! She is an inspiration to me and to all my family!

The very first time I saw Mary she was up on a ladder outside her garage either painting it or doing something... a strong vibrant young grandmother woman tending a home full of children... even my two. Then ... years later I was asked to take care of her in her physically frail state. As the first night progressed, Mary was concerned if I was going to vacate her living room. Rightly so ... who was this "now stranger" in her home. But as Laura suggested, just tell her you need a place to stay. Upon hearing these words, Mary immediately turned and hobbled down the hall ... only to return with an arm full of pillow and blanket to comfort me. Ever the epitome of kindness and spiritual strength. I love my dearest friend, Laura, and I thank her for allowing me to be part of her amazing family ♥■ ... as a stranger... ye took me in ...■. God and Heaven gladly embrace a beautiful daughter of God at this time My love to the Ellis family ... Cecelia Milner

Marty and I were able to watch Aunt Mary's beautiful funeral services. She was an angel, a true angel. We love Aunt Mary! Then we watched the wonderful picture tribute here, and it was so enjoyable seeing years of pictures of your mother and family. What a treasure! Thank you for taking such good care of Aunt Mary. We love each one of you. Love, Diane & Marty Ladwig
