Dear Bowens, For death is no more than a turning of us over from time to eternity into the Lords loving arms. So don't be dismayed or saddened at goodbyes. A farewell is necessary before we all can meet again. And meeting again, after moments or a lifetime, is certain for all of us and especially those who are such good friends. Mary Lynne was a wonderful person and her friendship will be missed, until we meet again... Our deepest love and condolences, Rick & Marilyn Sutter

Our condolences and love to the Bowen family and to Mary Lynne's siblings and their families. In her younger years, she was part of the daily adventure and drama that both Harker families experienced growing up on a farm in Jameston ward. Mary Lynne was friendly and kind to her Harker cousins and felt the influence of Grandma Sade as well as other amazing families in the neighborhood. She seemed determined to enjoy and make the best of every condition life presented. We are reminded to endure well to the end and to look forward to the best that is yet to come. Thank you Mary Lynne.

Gayle and I wish to offer our sincere condolences to Lane and family upon the passing of Mary Lynne. Lane and I were privileged to work together for well over a decade in the care of seniors across the country. With our professional backgrounds (Lane as a physical therapist and I as a physician), we had the honor of leading a management team dedicated to improving care and services for our residents and patients. As such, we attended numerous professional conferences (AHCA, AMDA, etc) and company meetings all across the country, and that is where my wife Gayle and Mary Lynne became fast friends spending many days exploring the sites and sounds of the host cities. Our memories of Mary Lynne are rich and we look back at those times with great fondness. Mary

Lynne was a gem and we are honored to have known her.

She was such a beautiful soul. I missed her when she moved from the Northridge Ward. We had a similar childhood in Idaho growing up on a farm and working so hard! I wished that I could have made the funeral. I pray that wonderful memories will come to mind as you grieve for her.
