I did not know you Matt..... but I knew your Grandfather and Grandmother Peterson as they served as my mission presidents in Mexico many years ago. Your mother was a beautiful young girl who along with her sister and two brothers gave us a taste of family during our time away from home. Oh how we loved them ! Your family will grieve and will miss you the rest of their lives But a wonderful, thrilling gift is now yours Matt. You will now know and love the most wonderful man ! Drew will wrap you up and smother you with all that is good, all that is great and will actively love you forever. I miss Drew..... I love him. You will too!

Marc, Colleen and I have just learned of your son's death. At times like these mere words are so inadequate. Some years ago, my only sister died at an early age and my mom, in her grief, said that "it just wasn't right for parents to have to bury their children." I concur. Our only solace is the Gospel of Jesus Christ and the sealing power which binds our children to us. Please know that you and your family are in our prayers. We loved you as a missionary and love you today. May the Lord bless you and your family.

- JOHN BAILEY STOHLTON

Losing a child is hard! Our heart and prayers go out to you! May the Lord be with you as you continue on this mortal journey without Matthew. Until you meet again, know that he is still close.....watching over you in Spirit. Reach out and feel his love! ♥■

- Lloyd and Sandy Embry

I didn't know Matt or your family but something drew me to read his obituary today and to watch his funeral service. I have never wanted to hug someone more than I have wanted to hug his mom right now. You were speaking to me. I am Matt. I am you. I am not worthy. I don't let people in. What a beautiful speech and beautiful tribute to her son. Matt is very lucky to have had you for a mother and to have this family. Thank you for sharing your son and your message with the world. I was meant to hear it today.

- Jennifer

Rest in Peace, Matt.
