

Matthew David Solorio

September 17, 1979 ~ February 22, 2025

I'm deeply saddened by this news. He was always so much fun at the family reunions and always would take the time to catch up with my brother and I at Morelia. He was a great cousin and a great man. I'm so sorry for your loss. Sending love and prayers.

The last time I saw Matt, I was home visiting my family. He kept asking me over and over if I was happy in Los Angeles. That was his number one concern. Matt was the definition of a good friend. His family embraced me as a kid, and I will forever be grateful for our shared memories. We loved Matt, and we will always miss him.

- Scott Carroll

I am saddened by the loss of my cousin, Matthew. My heart, thoughts and prayers go to his children, parents, brother, cousins, friends and others who knew him. Matthew was truly one of a kind, fiercely intelligent, hilariously witty, and magnetic. Matthew's love was deep, his presence unforgettable, and his spirit will never fade from our hearts. This loss is a reminder of how precious our time together here on earth truly is. Let's honor Matthew's memory by extending unconditional love and support to those around us. We never know what someone may be facing, and now more than ever, we must hold each other close. Rest in peace, Matthew. You are deeply loved and will be missed beyond measure, until we meet again. Revelation 21:4 – "He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away." Psalm 147:3 – "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds."

Oh Mattie, you will be missed, my friend. College was a joy because our paths crossed. You made my wedding day memorable by making sure everyone enjoyed themselves to the absolute fullest. You helped me land a job at AMEX when I needed insurance for 2 surgeries & you will never know how much that simple act of kindness changed the course of my life. I will be forever grateful to you. Sending love to your family for their loss. You are gone too soon, my heart is heavy, but I know you will always be with me in spirit. Rest in peace, Mattie x

My cousin was a light in this world, with a magnetic spirit, and a heart of gold. We spent many years enjoying our lives as young adults, and they were some of the greatest moments I'll cherish forever. Matthew was like a brother to me; and showed me unconditional love and support. I can feel his presence every single day; and can't wait until I Matthew, my mother, grandmother, grandfather, and cousin Jeremy all meet again. Rest Easy beautiful soul. So much love.
