So sorry for your loss. Thanks for all the content we all loved. Rest in Piece.

Mark, Karen, and family, I love you guys and have been praying for you. I hope you are each immersed in the love of your Father in Heaven and that comfort of the Holy Ghost is constant and uplifting to your souls. I mourn with you, and although not there physically, I am thinking of and praying for your family at this difficult time. May the Lord heal your hearts, give solace to your souls, and bring you comfort, peace, and joy. Much love, Robert

We were devastated to hear about your son Matthew! I know what it is like to lose a spouse, parents and siblings but not a child! I can't imagine having to go through it! You are in our thoughts and prayers--we love you guys and hope we can get together with Aunt Virginia soon! Love, Cousin Ronnie

- Becky Conrad Davenport

Twiggle was an awesome guy and his passing is deeply saddening. He provided many of us hundreds of hours of entertainment. He will be missed.

- Pencwenz

What devastating news. I did not know you in person but I was lucky enough to interact with you in the Twitch chat and experience your kindness and wholesomeness. One thing I never told you is how much companionship you kept me with your live broadcasts, especially when I was going through some rough times. Goodbye fellow spelunker, the community will never forget you <3

- brodino

Goodbye to my greatest spelunky idol. You showed me more than I could've ever learned from my friends. You've made us laugh with your funny compilations and streams. It was especially awesome when you commented on the mii I made for you. It's truly truly sad to see you go. Rest easy man.

- Linguini

His Spelunked series always made me laugh out loud, even when I was feeling down. I'm going to miss him.

- Nicholas

While I was not part of the Spelunky community for very long, I already know about the significance and irreplaceable influence of Matthew on the community. His videos brought a smile to many people all around the world, and we thank him for being such a great and friendly person to all of us.

- Alex

My now 7 year old, husband and I have watch Twiggle for a few years. We all loved watching him play what he loved - Spelunky. I am so very sorry for your loss. We all knew what a kind and gentle heart he had by the way he conducted himself to an audience who loved him also. We are devastated. Sincerely, Dave, Jessica and Matilda

I knew him as Twiggie, and he helped so many people with his streams in a time when many people needed a friend and a place to spend some time with other people. He won't be forgotten soon <3

- Bort

First i found out techno was dead and now i realise twiggie also died. Why are so many people dying at such a Young age. RIP

- Anon

I'm so so sorry to hear about Matthew's passing. Watching his streams helped me a lot with easing stress during a period of crunch towards the end of my university studies. He amazed me with his mastery of a game I love, and always made me smile when he posted a new video. I wish the best for his friends and family in this devastating time.

- Matthew Hart

He was a really funny dude with an amazing talent for video games. He'll certainly be missed by all of his fans.

Thank you, Twiggle, for everything you did for the Spelunky community and more. You did so much for so many years, more than I could ever know. RIP to a legend twiggLuv -Cloiss

- Cloiss

Matthew, I never got to meet you face-to-face. In spite of this fact, I was always happy to talk and spend time with you. Everything you did for the community we shared will eternally be immensely appreciated. The impact you had on not only myself, but hundreds of others, is beyond the scope of any human language. On behalf of the entire Spelunky 2 community, rest in peace, Matthew. Your contributions and legacy will continue to be treasured. I hope the Cosmic Ocean treats you well. To his family: I am so, so sorry for your loss. Give Lola some extra love today.

- Eileen (aka "egg")

Matthew had a heart of gold. We only crossed paths a mere handful of times, and even still, it was impossible to not see what a deeply kind and caring soul he was. To Matthew's family: I have you in my heart.

- Travis

This man provided an uplifting voice and a cheerful place to hang out to many, many people. He will be remembered as a pillar of his community, the cause of many smiles and laughs.

- Froakieguy

Matthew, or as I knew him, FatRat27 and later as Twiggle, was a mainstay in my life for years. Although we never met in person, we talked in twitch streams on a daily basis. He was the nicest kid in the Spelunky community, and he made us all proud with what he accomplished in his life as he grew up, both in the game and out of it. We'll miss you, bud. Love, Ruddigger and Ruddaughter.

- Ryan Rudd

Matthew, more well known as twiggle, was an amazing person. He brought me hours of joy and entertainment in an otherwise tough time for me. He brought amazing content, and it was shared to a lot of people. I'm sad to see him go, knowing he's in a better place now.

- Kian Jessop

I spent hundreds of hours with him though we never met. I am so grateful for the time spent with him, for his love of a game which brought us all such joy during such a terrible world disaster, and his kindness. He always stopped to ask me how I was and thanked me for being there. I am grateful. Please kiss Lola for me.

- MissMirandah

I only knew Matthew through the internet, but he seemed like an amazing person. Rest in peace Twiggle, you and your family will be in my thoughts for some time to come.

- Drew

Matthew brought me and many other fans great entertainment on his Twitch channel. I loved being there for his streams, talking to him, and seeing what crazy stuff he would do. He was such a talented and lovely person, and I wish I could've gotten to know him better. We will miss him so much, may he rest in peace. -jis

- jis

Rest in peace my friend. He would not know me but he might remember my twitch name as I often said hello to Twig. I went through a hardship last year. And every night when I saw his video, I could comfort myself when highly anxious and go to sleep with his voice on. I really wanted to express my sincere gratitude. And I feel really sorry to do it at this time. Rest in peace my dear friend Twig.

- Yeonggwang Park

I did not know Matthew personally, but I pray that he knew the Lord. I hope you all can be reunited one day in Heaven. Keeping the family and friends in my prayers.

- anonymous

I am so sorry to hear about his passing. When I was 14, my mom died of cancer, and Mathew's videos genuinely helped me feel a sense of happiness. I know it does less than little in this time of hardship, but you truly have my deepest sympathy.

- Ryan

He has created a safe space for so many on the internet, giving hundreds a little bit of what has been missing in their lives. He was always respectful of everything he's been told and made everyone feel welcome. I want to express my gratitude for his actions and send my condolences to his family. We'll miss you, Twiggle.

- NeonColored | Manuel

My deepest sympathies and condolences go to the family of the man I was fortunate enough to call a friend for the last several years of my life. There is a void not only left on the internet but in all of our hearts. I love you Matt and I know you are at peace.

- Lauren B aka Laurennnnnnn on Twitch

Matthew's streams have been a favorite in our house for some time. You could feel his sweet spirit and calm presence, and his love for his nephew and dogs were evident. My deepest condolences to the family - holding you all & Twiggs in my heart

- KM

Brought me many hours of joy with his content, this sudden passing is quite sad. I hope he gets the rest he deserves.

- YepImOnTV

I've never met Matthew personally, but I can tell that he was a kind man who will be missed by everyone who knew him. Thank you for everything, Matthew. You were truly the voice of reason, and a shining beacon of light and positivity in the online gaming community. You will be dearly missed by everyone you met while on your journey. No one can replace you. You were truly the best of what the world had to offer. We will never forget you <3 I send my condolences to the family.

- fjordbro

To the Julian family, I am so sorry to hear about Matthew's passing. I only knew him as Twiggie, or twigg, hanging out and playing games on Twitch. I was always glad to see him start streaming -- his gentle spirit... he could spend hours trying to achieve one thing, and have it go wrong, and all he'd say was a calm "oops" or "uhoh" and then just start all over again. We'll miss him dearly, my deepest condolences.

- Dave B

Twiggie (Matthew) was an awesome and friendly guy despite his personal struggles. He will be very sadly missed.

- Fortune

Twiggie was, and always will be, my favorite person I've met online. I had never felt more welcomed in a community than in his Spelunky 2 streams, and I would spend hours every day hanging around in chat. It was such a treat, and the positive community he fostered brought light to my life during difficult times. He supported my art and supported many fellow streamers as well. Everyone in the Spelunky community adored Twiggie. The community will always see Twiggie as a shining light and he will be missed dearly.

- Augustata

Thank you for the inspiration you provided to thousands of people, myself included, you will live on in Lunky forever be known as the best!

Dearest Uncle Mark, Aunt Karen and family. My heart has been breaking so much for you ever since I heard the news about Matthew. I'm struggling to find the right words to say right now, but I want to make sure at the very least that I let you know how much I love your family and think so fondly of you all. I am so sorry for your tragic loss. I pray for your family to have peace and comfort as you mourn the loss of sweet Matthew. I love you all and praying and thinking of you often.

- Sally Husk

He is one of the few people I could ever genuinely and honestly say is a purely good person. I know I would be taken aback if he ever had a negative thought about anyone, ever. He is such a kind person and I still see things about myself in him, in a way that made me feel less bad about myself. From the awkward humor, to the artistry, and the desire of perfection towards his skills, and to the genuine kindness for everyone around him, I feel like I always wanted to be someone like him. My prayers are going to the family, as I know how it is to lose someone so valuable and blessed. He will be with all of us.

- Matt Wingate

Devastating. I was damn lucky enough to talk to him on his stream chats and he as an amazing and kind person. I'm so sorry for the loss. We won't forget you Twiggle, rest in piece legend. </3.

- Rin

Dear Julian family, My prayers are with you during this difficult time. I'm so sorry.

- Tammy Lindley

So sorry for your loss. I was just a fan of Matthew and I can't imagine the pain you must be feeling. My deepest condolences.

- DJ Kirkwood

I never really knew much about Matthew, I 9nly watched his YouTube videos now and then. Me and my friends always wanted to be lile him because of his spelunky videos. And it's sad receving these news about him. I wish I interected with him more. But I'm afraid it's too late. Rest in peace

- Marcel

I loved watching this guy's content and always loved the personality he put out for everybody. It's so sad to see what's happened, it feels unreal, I hope you guys can get through this.

- Enmanuel Canabal

Matthew will be missed. He brought light to the days of everyone he reached online, and his relationship with his community was so friendly and uplifting that it was a comfort to simply know he was out there. If you're reading this, just know that he will be missed by many thousands of people. I count myself lucky for all the little interactions I had with him in streams, and it hurts to know that I will never wake up to a twiggle livestream again. Count yourselves lucky to have known a man who could face anything with a calm disposition and kind attitude. He never ceased to brighten a day, even when his own was dimly-lit. My deepest condolences, may he Rest In Peace.

- Piers Baker

Thank you for your streams, your videos, and your cheerful personality. You will be sorely missed. Rest in peace.

- XLH

I offer my sincerest condolences to the Julian family. I only knew Matthew through his videos and streaming but he was an inspiration for me personally as well as my kids. We loved watching his videos and streams together. His calm demeanor, warm and kind personality and quirky humour will be dearly missed. You will be in our prayers.

- Jesse

I can't count all the ours I was entertained but Matthew. I hope he is in a better place and at peace. We all struggle, remember to speak up and look for help, so this doesn't have to happen anymore. Rest in peace.

- Daniel

You were an inspiration to us Spelunky players and content creators. I loved coming by your streams and watching you breeze by the game so easily. You were the best in the world and this world will truly miss you.

- Kaleb

I did not know him personally but he gave me hours upon hours of joy with his content and personality. It hurts to see such a great person take his own life. I hope hope he finds peace and that his family and friends will eventually get through this. Deepest condolences to his family and friends and seriously thank you for everything matthew.

- Rafz

Matthew, who I knew only as Twiggle struck me as an exceptionally kind and gentle young man. It gave me genuine comfort to know we had such a warm and inclusive rolemodel in our little community. He brightened many of my days and I know he did the same for many others. He was exceptional at the game we have a shared love for but it was his kind and gentle nature that stuck out for me. He did a lot of building our community and made people feel welcome and like there was a place for everyone who wanted to be there. He lent many of us a sense of belonging during a weird time when that was harder than usual to feel. I am very sad to learn that he is no longer with us and he will be missed by many. My heart goes out to his family, friends and all those who are feeling his absence hard right now.

- Clodagh a.k.a. clobolikesrocks

i knew Matthew as Twiggle and always found his channel a source of comfort. may his memory be a blessing to all.

- beejo

I never met Matthew but I always enjoyed watching his content, both on his YouTube channel and on his Twitch livestreams. He was always such a joy to watch and could always light up mine, and many others' day with his presence. I was both shocked and saddened to hear of his passing, but I hope that he is now resting peacefully.

- Anibal

Dear Julian family, I am sorry for your loss. In the time I watched his content I was astounded by the fact that someone just a couple years older than me could make such great content and interact with so many people all while playing such complex games and performing difficult strategies. I remember tuning into his videos on slow mornings and sharing them with friends and the joy we felt on the train rides home as he would put on CGI filters of himself dressed in all sorts of costumes for his fans like the time he made himself a talking potato. I and thousands of others will always cherish him. Sincerely, Roger Bumgarner

- Roger Bumgarner

This man got me into spelunky and helped make the roguelike genre one of my favorites. I loved the content he made because not only was it informational but it was entertaining. (His potato bit was one of my favorites) Rest in Peace, TwiggleSoft Fly high! o7

This is devastating news and I'm so sorry to hear of Mathew's passing. I knew him as Twiggle, a Twitch streamer and Youtuber. I very much enjoyed his content, and so did thousands of other people. He was very entertaining and made me smile even on the saddest days. I hope this is of any comfort to you in this period of mourning. I would also like to add, my cousin also died at a young age. She was just 20 years old, only older than me by a few months. It truly is a heartbreaking thing to lose a loved one, especially when they're so young. I've found that it helps to remember the pleasant times you've spent with them and how they impacted you and those around them. Once again I am truly sorry to hear of this news. May Mathew rest in peace and as I stated earlier, I hope this message is of any comfort to you in this period of mourning.

- R

I'm so sorry this happened. I used to watch his videos a lot and they made me really really happy. Again, I'm so sorry this happend. May he Rest In Piece.

Cheers Twiggle.

I am a huge fan of Matthew's. His videos always brought me happiness in my darkest times. I hope that he is at peace and I wish everyone who knew him the very very best. <3

I can't imagine the pain you're going through but I wanted you to know how much Matthew will be missed by thousands upon thousands of people. Whenever I had the pleasure to watch his streams, he was a calm, polite, caring, and down to earth person who I knew would brighten my day. You have my thoughts and prayers through this hard time just as he helped me through my own. I am truly grateful I was able to be able to have had the pleasure to know him and I send my deepest condolences. E

- Eoghan Ryan

I'm heartbroken to hear about Matthew's passing. I knew him as Twiggle and he was such a delight to watch - always welcoming of everyone on his chanel and never having a bad word to say about anybody. I know this won't ease the sadness and pain of his close friends and family, but I hope you know how loved Twig was online. I hope he knew as well. I'm so very sorry for this devastating loss and I'm sending you my love from Europe. Ana Twiggle was a huge part of the Spelunky 2 community, and a huge idol for me. You got me through the game, and to a near-professional at it. You may not know me, but thank you. Thank you a lot.

- Jaxton P.

I'd only known him through his spelunky speedruns, but I always watched just to see him. At first, I only watched for the speedruns, but quickly grew a liking to his personality. He was one of the only YouTubers I truly felt a connection with. Just the small things like never getting angry at the game, instead just accepting that that's how the game works, as well have never cursing really made him a likable guy. A truly kind and gentle soul that passed too early, I hope you rest well Matthew, you deserve to be in the greatest paradise the afterlife can offer.

- Aaron

GG you made it to 7-99 and now its sad to see you go we will remember you -K.Luna

I cannot express how much joy and happiness Twiggle brought me and how he helped me regain my will. When I was in a terrible place in life, his videos and presence helped me connect with my friends again and join together to play Spelunky. We would bond over his content and the game and helped me grow stronger and better from where I was in life. He truly was an incredible person and will always live on in the community and by those he loved. Thank you for everything, Matthew

- Aaron M

I have been watching wiggle for more than a long time now and I just discovered his death and I want to talk about this here because I don't have anywhere else to put this message at, twiddle has helped my through tough times and I loved all his videos I can never replace the time I have spent watching his video's I couldn't have spent that time any better than I did, I can never replace the hole this persons death has left in my heart. He was an amazing man even though im not related to him I am still so sad. rest-in-peace

I was not that close to him, but Matthew always seemed a quiet, kind hearted sort. Considerate as well. He will be missed by all who knew him.

- Mike Martin

A beautiful soul. I spent countless hours watching and interacting with him and his community on twitch which helped me through a difficult, lonely period in my life. If I miss him, I cannot even begin to imagine the pain his family is experiencing. He will be forever remembered as a kind, intelligent, dedicated, and generous.

- Ryan Grube

Would have never heard of you if not for my 13yr old son who is an avid Spelunky player. He wanted to be as good as 'Twiggle' and looked up to him for all things Spelunky related. Rest in Peace, Matthew. Though my son and I never met you, you certainly made an impact on our lives.

- Jay

Hi, my name is Eatay. I've been watching the content of Mathew, or as I have known him, Twiggle, and I would like to let you know I've never seen a more wholesome, friendly, creative and relatable person in my life. He has been such a comfort for me to listen to, and I believe he was for you as well. I wanted to wish all of you the best during these difficult times, and I'm so very sorry for your loss. Best regards from Israel, Eatay.

- Eatay Mizrachi

Thank you Twiggle. In my freshman year of high school, I remember watching you stream on twitch. Seeing the daily runs being uploaded while in my history class always made me happy knowing that I could go home and watch you. May you rest in peace.

- Salty

Devastated to hear that we've lost one of the most genuinely kind-hearted people I've ever known. I'll always cherish the time we spent together chatting and playing games. Love you Twiggle. You've had such a positive impact on so many others. I hope you've found peace. You're one with the cosmos now.

- Zen

My deepest condolences to the family. Twiggle was such a kind and thoughtful man, I really enjoyed all the time I spent watching him play games on twitch. It was his personality and kindness that kept me around

- Austin

To Matthew from another random from a place around the globe who never interacted with you directly. to you who inspired me in a meaningless task which is spelunking and grinding the Cosmic Ocean, you who showed the world that impossible or near inhuman things can be possible, that it's about dedication, patience, and learning. Even if it was non intentional you left a deep mark in a community and myself. Rest in peace you'll never be forgotten.

-Gonzalo

- Gonzalo Ivan Ibarra

Thank you Matthew for everything you gave. I myself found you on Twitch a while back when I got into Spelunky 2 and the things you taught me dramatically sped up my learning. You were always such an even tempered and kind person and a joy to watch. My daughter, who was 8 at the time, started to play Spelunky and became obsessed with your YouTube channel. I always felt comfortable letting her watch your videos as I know you kept things mostly so mature and kid friendly, despite the occasional rowdiness in chat. She has become an insane Spelunky player thanks to you and it has inspired hundreds of hours that we have been able to spend together playing our favourite game together. Even though we never met, for that I will always be thankful. May you rest in peace James and Ava

Today I heard from his passing and it has occupied my mind for the rest of it. A year ago I experienced a deep depression myself, couldnt breathe, was scared of everything, just wanted to sleep - but sleep made it even worse. So I needed something to keep me awake. And oddly enough, Twiggles Spelunky streams were the only thing I could watch! And I didnt even care for the game, it was he, that calmed me down. In a weird way, he helped me through a very rough time - which makes it so hard realising, that he was in pain himself... I did not know his real name, he lives in a completely different part of the world than me and doesnt know me at all. But his passing brings me the cold sweat. I am deeply sorry you, twig. You are a wonderful being. May you finally find the comfort that you deserve!

- Marius Bendix Meyer

Twiggle provided me and many others with so many hours of entertainment and joy. He'll be missed. Rest easy.

Dear Alex, Mr. and Mrs. Julian and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I cannot begin to imagine the pain of losing a cherished son and brother at such a young age. It is obvious that Matthew was loved far and near and touched many lives around the world in his time here. May your memories of him bring you comfort. May he rest in eternal peace. Majeda

Matthew was an amazing twitch streamer and an even greater person. Not only has he changed my life for the better, he made me want to follow in his footsteps and become a streamer just to make people as happy as he made me. I hope wherever he is now he knows he was loved and will be missed. My heart goes out to his family and friends during this hard time and I hope healing comes soon. Forever in my heart you will be, Twiggle.

I watched every single one of Matthew's streams every time they were live. He was a comfortable presence and allowed me to find a way to escape school and the struggles of daily life. Thank you to Matthew for allowing me comfort and continuing to be an inspiration in my life. Rest in peace Twigg.

- Ryan Volcik

I really didn't get a chance to know Matthew. I wish I had gotten to know him better. My favorite memory and last memory of him was in my kitchen sitting at the kitchen table with Abby, James, Matthew & myself. We were just hanging out talking about fun times and joking with each other and he and Abby were just laughing their heads off ! Abby has the cutest laugh! But I had never seen Matthew enjoying himself that much He was always so quiet and reserved . I'm glad I had that experience with him because it was the last time I was around him.! It was a good positive memory to remember him by that I will always treasure. It's hard to know what to say regarding this heart breaking news! I've had my share of this kind of tragedy believe me, there isn't much people can say to relieve the pain . Just know I grieve with you and know somewhat of your heart ache! May Matthew Rest In Peace ! Much love and condolences to you all , Mark, Karen, Alex, James and Abby. ♥■♥■♥■♥■♥■♥■

I was a frequent viewer of Matthew's content, and fondly recall looking forward to when he went live on Twitch, or whenever he would upload a new video. Hey i was a viewer of Matthew's youtube channel, i just want to say he made a lot of people extremely happy with the content he made and he will always be remembered in many peoples hearts.

Whoever is reading this, whether it's family, friend, or anyone else, he didn't deserve it. I met Matthew from twitch and he always made my day whenever I would watch him or play Spelunky with him, he was the nicest person I had ever met and I still can't believe he is gone. My heart breaks to those who knew him in person, I can only imagine how much harder it is for you, I'll never be able to open Spelunky a day in my life without missing him. Rest in peace twigg, I'm sorry we couldn't help enough. twiggLuv

I was a tier 3 subscriber to Matthew's twitch for over a year. Every stream, when joined I would always say "go twigg go!" and he would always take time to greet me and invite me to play when he did multi-player. His streams got me through a tough time in my life and I admired the dedication he had when streaming as he made the games look so easy. He will be greatly missed, my heart goes out to his family and friends and I value and treasure the time we got to spend together.

- Jynkies007

My condolences for your loss. Matthew was an amazing person, he was entertaining and kind, and he's given me and my friends hours upon hours of enjoyment, I only wish I could support him more before his passing.

- Michael Oryan

This has been a really hard news to get through, Matthew was one of my favorite streamers and his charismatic attitude and welcoming personality made time a blast. I would hang around chat and joke with them and him, and it was a really fun experience. I know how hard of a time he was going through, and it really saddens me to hear he had to go through it. May he rest in peace and i wish nothing for the beast for his family.

- Alejandro

My first and favorite ever spelunky 2 streamer and speedrunner.. he will always be in my heart, he had a special spot there, he deserved a lot better than this.

- Jami Jauhiainen

Matthew, who I knew as Twiggie, helped me through a tough time in my life by sharing his kind-hearted and positive personality in his twitch streams. It was clear, even through the barrier of the screen and from my vantage point as just one person in a whole audience of viewers, that he cared deeply about those around him and was the kind of person everyone hopes to make their friend. I wish I could have known him in real life so I could articulate to him just how much he helped me (and still helps me) and how lucky I felt to have found his videos. Anyone can play video games on stream; it takes a very special kind of person to make it worth watching the way Matthew did. He made everyone feel welcome and his positivity and good humor were infectious. My deepest condolences go out to his family.

- Austin

Watching your streams got me through some of the lowest points of my life. Thank you for everything you've done for me and many many others even without knowing us personally. twiggLuv -Marco

- Marco Levine

Your streams indirectly helped me through out High school. If I was ever stressed out during the school day then your streams would be the first place to go to relieve my stress. You are the best and nothing can change that. ■

- Sebastian

A life ended too soon, RIP.

- Jaime Villegas

I'm very saddened to have just found out about Matthew's passing. His streams helped me keep my life together during what for me were some particularly difficult times, especially spring of 2021. He was as perfect a streamer as I can imagine : highly skilled and ambitious in-game, but positive and measured in his commentary and community interactions. He was the best in the business, as far as I'm concerned. To the extent that it is possible, I wish peace upon his family.

- Matthew T.

love you Matthew and please if anyone you know is dealing with bad thoughts please check on them love you

- Deacon Baker

I never knew Matthew personally but as his persona twiggle online, he was one of my favorite streamers on twitch. He was one of the best spelunky 2 streamers out there and he was one of the most friendly too. I would say hi to him in chat and he would greet back and that was always a pleasure. To be part of a community like his was an amazing thing because you felt like you were at home and that you could just hang out and chill and it would take your stresses and worries away for that moment. Twiggle was a kind person and it's heartbreaking to hear of his passing. My prayers go out to all his family. Keep your head up, Matthew left a wonderful legacy for his life. - Paul

- Paul Sem

I feel awful for his family and friends, he did so much stuff for people and viewers like us as well. Rest well Twiggle

- Godifier

I should have figured something was wrong when it was silent from his YouTube/Twitch channels for the past while, but I wish it never came down to this. I'll miss you a lot.

- Nikolas Gutzman

You may not know me but I remember your channel bringing a smile to my face and many others in hard times and your world records you conquer and who could forgot the gold world record. I say these things because you were such a talented person and I hope you rest easy now. Godspeed Twiggle ■

- Joshua Walker

Twiggle. What a legend. What and amazing person he was. I used to love his streams and once I even managed to talk with him via twitch chat, and I can still remember how cool it was! Twiggle and Hectique, another amazing spelunker, were my big inspirations when playing spelunky. Rest in peace Twiggle, you were and still is loved by many people. Become one with the cosmos as you are already were in Spelunky.

I knew Matthew as a Spelunky streamer named Twiggle. He's the only streamer I ever really watched extensively. His immense patience and persistence was otherworldly and one top of that he was always really good company to chat. His streams made so many people feel less lonely. I am deeply saddened by our collective loss. And I hope his family understands how great of an impact he had on so many people. What an awesome dude.

I've only recently come across your videos recently after playing spleunky 2 years after it's release. Your attitude towards this game was so positive and cheerful. You as a person seemed so supportive and soft spoken, with the patience that goes unrivaled. Rest well knowing you positively changed the lives of those you don't even know.

- An internet stranger

I remember during the hardest time in my life, I would always check in on his streams because no matter what he would always make people laugh and not once did he ever get upset. He was always positive and he was so kind to everybody. I am always thinking about him even now. I really hope he is somewhere amazing right now because he deserves nothing less.

- Austin J Taylor

Hello family of Matthew, I would just like to say thank you for raising such an amazing person, he will truly live on as one of my favorite streamers of all time

- Kyle

Two years later, video games and life still aren't the same. He held a place in all of our hearts that no one else could fill and he has gone all too soon. Twiggles was larger than Spelunky, he was a friend who I could watch anytime and anywhere. There are many things I wish I could have told him and many times I wish I could've helped him, the same way he did for me. May he rest in a place where he is free to be happy. Much gratitude, Lil_nuggut

- lil_nuggut

I realize that it is quite likely that no one reads these anymore, but two years is a long time without someone who consistently entertained and made you laugh, and gave you a safe space among troubled times throughout the months, particularly COVID. I hope any family members that may happen to stumble upon this message stay strong, however much that means from a complete stranger. I wish you only the best, no matter how dark life becomes.

- worm

Thank you, worm. This is Matthew's dad. I wanted to add another message here just to thank all of you - relatives, friends; fans and subscribers and viewers of Matthew's online work - for all of the kind, gracious, and, well, beautiful thoughts, wishes, and condolences that you've given to Matthew and to us his family members here. Thank you so very much! They've meant and mean a great deal to us all. Yes, we do read these condolences still, and enjoy them; so please don't think your time and effort has been in vain. I didn't really understand that Matthew, when he was streaming, had so many loyal fans or how nice and thoughtful you all are - I'm so grateful he has such a wonderful legacy. Thank you all again!

- Mark W. Julian

I spent so many hours watching Matthew stream, that even though I did not know him on a personal level I feel like I did. I always wished I could meet him and hang out, and was hoping that one day maybe it would be possible. I could tell he was a good person and we need more people like him in this world, not less. I am devastated by this news and I wish there was something I could have done to help you my friend. Love ya dude, I'll see you on the other side. May God bless you and your family. twiggLuv

- Mike (San Diego, CA)

I recently got spelunky (a few months ago) and was sad when I heard what happened. He was a great player and a great person in general from what I have seen. My heart goes out to his family and friends and all the people who watched him. We have lost a great content creator and a great guy. The spelunky scene is kind of dead without him to be honest. RIP. - Ryan walker 25th September 2024

I knew Matthew for a short time on twitch, but I immediately felt that he is an awesome, mellow and very positive person to be around. His streams were comforting, entertaining, and also a lot of fun. Matthew was the kind of person I aspire to be, that makes the world a nicer place. I was very touched by how he cherished his nephew and Lola, and will forever remember his viewers' pet appreciation video. The news were shocking to me, and I am very sorry for his family and everyone who was close to Matthew. I am thankful for the time he spent with his community and come here from time to time to see all the people who share the same thoughts.

- Roman

It was difficult realizing that it's been over two years since Matthew passed away. It's still heartbreaking, I never knew him personally but just as a viewer on Twitch, and every now and again I realize I miss the community he built up. I really treasured the good times he gave me during peak-covid, and my friend and I who watched him frequently still miss him. I hope he's at peace, and the same goes for anyone reading this.

- Arianne

I'm writing this at 0:20 {CET (UTC+01:00)} on 06/01/2025 Spain. I remember discovering Matthew at the end of 2020 through one of his most viewed videos on his YouTube channel Spelunked - Volume 2. I was simply looking for a channel where I could learn a little more about the game, but I not only found that, I found a GREAT person. From that moment on, I was hooked on Matthew and his YouTube channel, watching every video and live stream he uploaded. Two years after meeting him, on March 28, 2022, I started following him on Twitch. I remember the first live stream I saw of him. It was early in the morning and I spent some time watching him without knowing that it was going to be the first and last time I would see him live. Three months later... I was on a summer trip and it was there that a friend of mine sent me the fateful news. At the time I couldn't believe it, I felt very sad and even more so for his family, I couldn't understand how this could have happened to such a good person. To this day I still watch his videos, I'm still so sad for what happened to him and for what his family and friends have had to suffer... There are no words that can ease the pain, thank you for everything Matthew Joseph Julian, better known for the community you helped build, TwiggieSoft. Thank you, really. ♥■

- Asier Martínez Skalniak a.k.a. asierskalsoft

Twiggle was the best Spelunker and person he was absolutely amazing at doing his job its so sad to see him gone he had an amazing community that loved him i hope he can be lost in the cosmos as he once beaten them.

- Private Tovar

Even after years of his passing Matthew still manages to put a smile on my face through the videos he made. Rest in peace Twigg♥■

- RMH

Watching his streams and videos never failed to put a smile on my face. His skill and dedication to such a hard game inspired me to give everything I do maximum effort, even if it seemed impossible. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family.

- Chamaco-SM

I still think about him. The joy he provided. The vibes he gave. He wasn't just good at Spelunky he was the best. He beat the whole game without getting hit once, but more than anything he made me feel like there was peace in this world. Wherever he is. Whoever he is. Whatever he struggled with. My life was made better with him and I'm glad he was around on Twitch for me to be around.

- Ally

I only know him from youtube because i just got into spelunky 2, but i have only just found out about his tragic passing now. i wish his family the best, rest easy matthew.

- cy

This man was there for me through difficult times... even though he was just a streamer... he made me laugh even when I was sad. Condolences to the family.

- Davide Oliva

I always struggled with depression. A phenomenon that's is not unbeatable but is a threat to almost anyone that push themselves past their natural limit. Twiggle or Matthew had remarkable resilience, tenacity and the ability to maintain steady composure. When I first seen his videos I was amazed at his ability to focus and still speak with the audience. I was working the courage to finally go to his streams and actually speak with him, but I saw the Reddit post and instantly felt a chill hit me. I love that a person can have elite intelligence and have the ability to make a lot of people smile and be charismatic at the same time. If I had more time I would ask Matthew let's go for a walk and get a drink some time my friend. I promise to beat the game and remain respectful for you chum so help me god
