

Maxwell Ty Roberts

October 1, 2000 ~ June 9, 2023

Pam and Wayne: I am so sorry for the loss of your son Max. He sounds like that he was an incredible young man just like his parents. Sending my love and prayers to you guys and your family at this difficult time.

- Brenda Roberts Owen

My family sends their sincere condolences. We did not know your son but from his picture you can see his beautiful spirit. This will continue on and you will be reminded of him always and forever. Much love and prayers for your loss…

- Thorson-Gandrup Family

Max was better than anyone at making somebody feel loved. He really made everyone around him feel special. I can’t imagine the feeling of losing him so young. He was raised so well and it showed in his demeanor. He is on to greater things and I cannot wait to see him again. So much love and so many prayers going your way.

- Cooper England

My heart is heavy to learn about Max’s passing. Wayne, I have always loved and admired you from our days at GSK. You were an example of Christlike living and goodness. I pray that you and your family will find comfort.

- Denise Kunkel

We are so saddened to hear about your loss. We love the Roberts family and wish for you all possible peace and comfort at this time.

- Sean Johnson Family

I didn’t know Max personally, but for the past few months, I’ve heard about him almost daily- his kindness, his encouragement, his mentorship, his friendship, and his love of adventure. My son, Peyton, had the privilege of being his friend in Florida these past few months and Max had a huge impact on him in such a short time. He helped Peyton want to reach higher, try harder, and was always there with a helping hand or encouraging word. After a conversation with Max, Peyton knew he could do great things. I will be forever grateful for his goodness and his kindness and his friendship to my son.

- Rachel Anderton

I’m so thankful that I got to meet Max through my husband Noah, who served with Max in Tacoma. He was seriously the light in Melbourne FL. Once, there was a lizard in our apartment. He came right over and caught the lizard! He wanted to keep it as a pet until it pooped in his hand! We all laughed so hard. He was an amazing friend. During summer sales, all he wanted was for everyone to succeed. He always had the best advice.

- Harlie Hughes

There are no words to express our condolences, there is only comfort in knowing Max is in a wonderful place with others who are giving him the same love and support that he received during his time here with us. Know that you all have our support and are here to share your pain and celebrate the life of a wonderful young man.

- The Prasads

Dear cousin Pam, Wayne, and family, I can't imagine the sorrow that you are experiencing right now. It hits close to home, since your children are all similar ages to my children. That was a beautiful obituary! Wow. He lived an exceptional and full life. He is loved by so many. Oh, he will be missed! I pray you take comfort and strength in the knowledge of our Savior and that you will see Maxwell again. All my love, Aimee

- Aimee Eberhard Giles

My dearest condolences to your family. Praying for everyone to find comfort in this time of need ■ ❤■

- Ricci Hall

I knew Max through Ray Bachiller. He was one of the "tennis kids" who would join us for lunch or help at events. Max always had a smile and was willing to help out. I know he will be greatly missed by all his friends and family. Having lost a son at age 16 during the pandemic, my heart hurts for you all. Keep his memory alive. Max brought so much to the world; honor that memory

- Liz

To the best neighbors and friends. My heart is absolutely shattered. I’m sending prayers of peace and comfort to you and your entire family downing this devastating time.

- Brittney Cox

I love all of you so much and am here for you for anything. Max influenced my life and personality in a way and abundance only he and I will ever know. He was the most charming person on the planet and I genuinely would find myself wondering what such an incredible person was doing spending his time with me. I miss him already and am so grateful for the opportunity I had to know him and for everything I experienced and learned because of him. I love him and you guys so much. -nick

My favorite memory of Max was when he and Ryan chased me with a knife and I had to lock myself in Sam’s room. I think Ryan may have stabbed the door with the knife. The Roberts house was always the place to be, every one of you are so loving and accepting. This absolutely broke my heart. I love you Pam thanks for being the best coach I had in AAU.

- Max Broman

Hello Max’s friend max visited my house during the mission, he always said that I was his Chilean brother We had so many plans together that hearing this news breaks my heart he was my brother and best friend Heaven won a very beautiful soul It was a pleasure to meet Max and to have become such a friend of him. I will always remember him and he will be by my side. my condolences to his family and a kiss that they are a great family blessings from chile atte: rich boy as max told me Instagram: Eduardo.nsd

Our hearts are hurting for your family. We know you will miss Max so much in this life. We are grateful you are sealed as an eternal family and have that comfort. I'm sorry we will not be at the funeral but our love, prayers, hearts and thoughts will be.

- Diane and Chuck Eberhard

So sorry not only for your loss but for all of our loss. We can only imagine the joy that will one day come to us all as we are once again united, which surely will come. With all of our love and support, Jim and Linda Roberts

- Jim and Linda Roberts

We did not know Mac but we know some of your other boys and I am sure Max was as amazing as they are. What a happy, peaceful smile he has in his picture. We want you to know how much we love your family and wish we could help with the grief and suffering you are experiencing now. So grateful for eternal families. Love you all.

- Crawford and Joyce Cragun

I have loved your sweet family since you first became my neighbors years ago. Leo and I had so much admiration and respect for you and the way you were raising your amazing family. I can’t attend the services in person because of surgery this week but I will be watching. Although he will be greatly missed, it is comforting to know that Max passed the test of mortality and has gone on to a higher calling—just a little sooner than the rest of us. I can imagine that his enthusiasm and love of our Savior and our Heavenly Father will cause him to be an influence for good as he continues to serve in Paradise. I love you.~Annie

- Anna Romero-Tippets

I haven’t talked to Max in about 2 years but he was the best guy. He was one of the first friends i made when i moved to draper, he was so nice to me and so kind to everyone and was always so fun to be around. My thoughts and prayers go out to your family. Everyone should try to be more like Max❤■

- Keila Hansen

All though I did not know Max personally I know Wayne and Pam Roberts and nothing but good could come from those Parents. This was a terrible shock to all who know the family. I was fortunate to have been at their house when channel 2 approached several of us in the Robert's yard to share some words about the family. Kevin Linkous shared much about Max and the family which was aired on channel 2.We are so fortunate to have the Gospel of Jesus Christ in our life to help us heal from the pain and sorrow of losing Max. Wayne and Pam know that we love you and want to be there for you and your family through the healing process. Families are eternal and you will be together forever. With love, ann Burningham

- Ann Burningham

Over the years my daughter and nephew have been friends with Max and they’ve shared stories of how they have been touched by his example, kindness and love. My heart aches for you. I love you and your family.

- Jason Wells

Our hearts ache for you and your sweet boys. What an amazing life Max lived. We hope you feel him near today and always. What a comfort to know you will see that bright smile again one day. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. ❤■

- Brandon & Brenda Robertdon

Words cannot express our deepest compassion for what you are both experiencing right now. Please know that our hearts are knit together with yours in love. Our prayers will continue in your behalf. May the Lords greatest blessings of peace and a knowledge of happy reunions yet to come be with you all. We love the Roberts family!

- Matt and Tracy Larsen

My thoughts and prayers are with you. I can’t even imagine how hard this is for your family. Please if there’s anything I can do let me know. You’ve been such a good friend to me. The mark kitchen family-

- Mark Kitchen

We love you guys and are praying and grieving with you. We are so sorry for your loss, we are always here for your family and we will miss Max.

Of all the words in all the books, in all the whole wide world.....there wasn't even one to say how much it must hurt. Wishing you peace at this difficult time....There was this poet named W. H. Auden and he wrote a 4 verse poem on love and death.....the 3rd verse was my favorite and since Max was a twin, I thought of him and how Ryan could speak these words..... He was my North, my South, my East and West, My working week and my Sunday rest, My noon, my midnight, my talk, my song: I thought that his life would last forever: I was wrong. (Sometimes this earthly life is cut short, but love lasts) Nobody can take your memories away and twins have an extra special bond. Love to all Team Roberts

Wayne & Pam, My deepest condolences to your family. May you be comforted at this time in the knowledge of His plan and seeing Max again. All our prayers for your family.

- Hal Jorgensen

Wayne, You and your family are in my family's thoughts and prayers. We are so sorry for your family's loss of your son. Love Todd, Jen and Zach Mueller

- Todd Mueller

Dear Pam and Wayne and all those wonderful brothers, I was so touched to read and listen about Max from all of you. How he loved life and loves people! I hope I can improve in not just feeling but showing my love as he did. I probably laughed as much as I cried during the funeral. You are in my prayers every day and the center of my fasts every week—I know this separation will be so painful for all of you! Your great faith and love has helped mine grow. Thank you for being the family that you are! Your new grandson/nephew is so blessed!
