Cindy, Melvin Roy & family, Saddened to learn of your Dad's passing, reflecting on a beautiful life so very well lived. I can hardly remember a visit home in the last 25 years that didn't include time spent with your Dad. Coming up, I was as comfortable in your home as my own. I remember being there in your parent's care when Grandma Alder passed, playing dress up and Cindy's "easy bake oven"! How our imaginations engaged in your amazing playhouse in the yard, I had my first cup of tea at your kitchen table, and our Buster - Buster Brown BB Bell to be exact, what a great dog! I remember our Dad's at a Daddy/Daughter program at Stratford Ward, blindfolded we were tasked with finding our Dad's by feeling their faces, I turned beet red having chosen your Dad! How did I confuse his manicured handlebar mustache for my Dad's? Your Dad gave me a hug, he was so gracious, my Dad winked and chuckled. I'm so glad that they shared such a special friendship, especially their bond after losing our beautiful Mothers far too early. While having to say goodbye to these great men feels like losing an anchor and being set adrift, the firm foundation they provided us in our youth will always sustain us and steady our course. Know that you, like your Dad and Mother, will always be loved and treasured. Ronda

Dear Cindy, My deepest sympathies on the loss of your dear Dad. Mere words cannot express the feelings that losing a beloved parent brings. Your dad is in Heaven with your dear mom and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. You will see your dad again. I pray you will be comforted by the Holy Ghost and by your dear memories of him.

Love, Yvonne

Mel was a great neighbor the last 15 years. He was kind and friendly to our kids and I always enjoyed chatting with him outside after he parked his big Ram truck or his motorcycle. We'll miss him and his friendly smile. Rest in Peace Mel! Love, Christiaan, Amanda, and the girls.

Dear Cindy, Roy and extended Brown family, I am so sorry about the tragic loss of your beloved father and truly wish I could be there in person to express my condolences. Your dad was a gentleman among gentlemen. I greatly enjoyed our occasional interaction and I especially enjoyed spending one happenstance afternoon with him along with Barr and my sons at the cabin on Bear Lake in June 2018. Your dad was certainly at his best proudly showing us around the estate and generously taking time to highlight several of the projects he had undertaken over the years. He was a most impressive man and I marveled as I read over his awe-inspiring obituary. I feel most fortunate and privileged to have known your dad and, now some seventy years later, be wearing the same uniform and likewise be stationed in Germany where he so proudly served. I salute your dad for his service to God, family and country. May he rest in peace after such an exemplary life. A big hug from afar, Steve and Sara Calder
