It was a happy greeting between Raymond and Merilyn, I'm pretty sure.

My dear sweet friend Merilyn, I am going to miss you dearly, I am so grateful I was able to talk to you on your Birthday and wish you a Happy Birthday and talk to you one more time. We have been special friends and great Avon buddies. I will always cherish our visits and long phone conversations. We had so much in common and both loved our family dearly. She would always tell me to say hi to my son Brett, he loved Merilyn as well. She would always call me and say Peg, and then we would start talking, I can hear her voice in my head calling me now. I loved your mom, she was an amazing woman, mother, grandmother and great grandmother and wife, how she loved Raymond. She would always tell me about her grand kids and then all the new grand babies that she was so proud of. I love you Merilyn and will miss you terrible. Love Peggy Chastain

I remember Merilyn for her kind words and small gifts any time I ws having a difficult time. She was so thoughtful of others, even when she was having a challenge. I remember well the many talks we had together when I was helping to care for Raymond. She had the gift of making people feel betteras she shared her own challenges. Merilyn always had time to give to anyone who came her way. Thank you Merilyn for all your tips of wisdom and loving kindness.

When I was a young chap, I spent more time at Momma Whitt's home than I did my own house. She was so kind in opening her home to me. Along with the generosity of feeding me meals, she also gifted me with great advice. Those long talks made me feel loved. Her love, along with the friendship of Raymond and David is something that I will treasure for all eternity.
