Millie Masich Johansen

September 29, 1925 ~ February 9, 2023

We are constantly aware that death is part of the life cycle. Our love for Millie will continue on for us and we will miss her greatly. Our love also to each and every member of her family.

There was one time that I remember sitting with you one afternoon and I asked if you would ever consider getting a tattoo. You said no, but if you were to get one, it would be a dragonfly. All I want to say is that I can’t wait to see the dragonfly’s this year; I’ll know that it’s you coming to say ‘hello!’ Nana, I love you so much. Thank you for all of the wonderful memories and moments we shared. Thank you for being someone I could always look up to. Thank you for always making me feel unconditionally loved no matter what. I will miss you immensely.
