Scott and Family, My heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your wife and mother. I've never had the chance to meet her in the 20+ years I've known you; however, it seems like she was a true "gem". Hi Scott, I am so sorry for you and your family. I was unable to attend the funeral but you are in mine and Tiffany's thoughts. I know you have a ton of support but please let me know if I can do anything.

Hi Scott (and family), I just saw a post of Facebook from some classmates of Monica regarding her funeral. I am SO SORRY to hear this and quite surprised to know of her passing! Monica grew up just a few blocks away from me and was "the other Monica in town". (I am only 1 year older). Although I didn't know Monica as we we became adults, I knew her family (at least as kids) and of course, her mom and dad. You never know how others impact your life, but this just makes me so terribly sad. I always looked thru my little girl eyes at those BEAUTIFUL McAllister girls with admiration for their poise and beauty and kindness! (Marcy is a few years older and I always wanted to be like her when I grew up... ha ha). Monica always made me proud to share the name. When I think of Monica, I see a pretty girl who always had a tiny grin and a gentle spirit, with a touch of shyness. As a young girl, she was always sweet and kind (never a mean girl... ever!!). Something to admire as I always did from afar. She is gone too soon from this world, for sure! My heart is filled with compassion for your family... With love, thoughts and prayers..... from the "other Monica" in Kanab.
