Thank you for letting us have Monica for a neighbor, even if just for a little while. We have loved chatting with her, seeing how the garden was coming along, and being greeted by the dogs. Easily one of the best neighbors we have ever had. The Skousens

I saw something interesting yesterday and immediately went to send it to Monika and I stopped when I realized she was no longer with us and would not get it. I thought how I'll miss my friend. How she was bigger than life. You were so privileged to have a wonderful daughter, sister, mother and friend. I know I'll miss talking jets, gardening, doxies and sewing with her.

Dear Kristina and Ludwig and families, I am so heart broken for your loss and pray that through all the accomplishments your mom had that you will find some peace in her passing. She inspired me every day to keep moving although I may not have had as much energy as she did. I loved reading her posts and seeing all she was accomplishing in her new home. I will always remember her and look forward to seeing her again one day and will know that she has paved the way in our new life. God bless you all and(I'm a southerner so)hugs to you as well.

My heart was broken when I heard the news that Monika had passed, and it breaks for you, her family. She was such an inspiration for all of her amazing talents and passions! I was always in awe of her accomplishments. Boundless energy describes her well, and so does a loving, kind heart. I knew Monika from the heirloom sewing world. She will be missed by many. May God give you comfort and peace at this difficult time. Until we meet again Monika!

I can’t tell you home much I admired Monika! So full of energy I could not keep up with her’! I know she was brilliant at work and her coworkers are going to miss that spitfire! But moving cross country, planting gardens, designing sewing rooms…good grief her energy was boundless. I loved having her in our sewing classes and will miss all her adventures. I know you will treasure her many memories!

To say this was a shock is an understatement. My Prayers and Support goes out to her family. Although I have only have known her for a short time her energy and upbeat attitude was truly something I will miss at work. When I was down I knew I could count on Monika for a smile and a laugh. She will be missed greatly
