To Nancy's family: I had the pleasure of working with her when we were both in management at American Savings. That was LONG time ago! We reconnected when I was setting up a very small account at AFCU for a school team. By then I had married and changed my name, so it took us a minute to figure out the connection, since my name was different. It was absolutely delightful to re-kindle a relationship and see that Nancy had the same spark, commitment to customers, and genuine, all-around "nice personality" that I had known in the late 80s. She was lovely, kind, and generous of heart. My condolences to all.
