

Nancy Elizabeth Long Foster

January 12, 1937 ~ June 27, 2024

Nancy was a gift to this world. She healed and loved so many. For me, she was the first person to really truly care about me and see me for who I could be. I owe her my happiness. I'll be forever grateful to have known such a healer.

I'm grateful to have met you, Nancy. My children cried when I broke the news to them. You loved them as if they were your very own grandchildren. I am going to miss our conversations. Thank you for your kindness. It was always a learning moment when I was with you. I'm grateful to know and understand the gospel. That was my favorite topic to talk about with you and now you have graduated life and on to the next level! I know you are free from suffering and things are much better on the other side! Ofa Lahi Atu, Nancy! That means, "I love you so much!" In Tongan.

We will miss the holiday meals, games, dancing, smiles, laughs, hot chocolate, love, e cards and so much more. We love and miss you so much. I'm glad you are still watching over our kids and look forward to the day we are all together again.

- Christine Foster

Nancy, I am grateful to have been apart of your life. Your love healed my soul. Your Grace & Compassion is my compass for my journey here on earth. You will forever be in my heart. Love You

Nancy was truly and angel on earth! She will be deeply missed

- Lisa Giles

Nancy and Eric were friends with my wife’s parents on 3rd Avenue in the 27th East Ward. My wife, Carrie Bergeson baby sat the 3 children. Eric and Nancy came to our wedding reception in 1981. Nancy as a Nurse Practitioner helped many people and helped host and facilitate monthly meetings for Utah Hormone Practitioners for years in the Graystone office. She mentored many practitioners. She sent many patients to our pharmacy to do saliva testing and to get their hormones and other medications. She often helped people pay for their medication and helped many ProBono. She was “The Mother Theresa of Utah”. She gave me and many people gifts at Christmas and for no reason just because she loved you and wanted to give you something. One of my most cherished gifts was a beautiful hand made turquoise large Dream catcher. I so loved and admired her. She was like a 2nd mother.

Nancy was truly an angel on earth and blessed and touched the lives of so many people. She was so generous with her time and talents and was one of the best therapists in the state. I am grateful for her life and friendship. She will be missed. I have such love and admiration for her. She will now do a marvelous work in Heaven as she did here on earth. My deepest sympathy to her family. Patty Butts, LPC miss you, Nancy. you saw me through a lot of hard things through the years and you were tough as nails. you always had a listening ear when life was too much to handle for me and gave me such thoughtful gifts. when you engaged with someone you were hyperfocused in--sometimes you saw so much i think i was a little intimidated, especially as a teenager. all you ever wanted was for me to come out of my room and i can't thank you enough for the part you played in helping me get to where i am today with understanding and love. on Facebook, you're wearing my glasses in your profile picture--the round yellow ones i always wore, and you have a huge smile on your face. i'm sorry i didn't always know how to respond in the face of your unflinching love when i was so shy and nervous. more than probably anyone i know i can say you knew where you were going, and that gives me peace. thank you for all you did for my family, the beautiful nuggets of wisdom you shared with me, the beautiful gemstones you'd gift to me because you felt i needed it. i still have that amethyst geode and it is immensely important to me. i love you so much. happy trails, my grandmother in spirit.

What a wonderful spirit. Her words were seeds that could transform an existence made of darkness and inhospitable psychological rock into a forest of hope, empathy, and perpetual betterment. She saved my life. The kindness and understanding she exposed me to during our short time together has bettered the lives and restored the dignity of many who will never know her name or her actions. Those close to her were blessed.
