

Nancy Jenkins Krieger

May 5, 1961 ~ March 16, 2026

Dear Family, Nancy was my church group girl and so easy to teach. I loved her humor and energy and will always honor her in my very old memories!

Isaac and Caroline, I am sorry for your loss of your beautiful mom. I so enjoyed listening to her obituary. You were blessed with such a talented loving mom. Love you both, Sue

- Sue Grassley

Dear Caroline I am so sorry to read about the death of your mom. Caroline you look so much like your mom. I wish I could be there to wrap my arms around you. Instead I send my love and prayers and hope this in some way helps a little. It will be very hard for some time but she is with our Lord and God and that is some comfort. I wish I could have met her. Your mother was an amazing person leaving an extraordinary legacy for her children and grandchildren. I will be in prayer for you and your brother at the time of services. God Bless ! Mrs Ruby

I loved growing up with Nancy Jenkins! She always brought a smile and a laugh to everyone she met! So full of fun, energy, and fearlessness! So talented in modern dance and music, and so very smart and educated! She grew into a beautiful missionary and found her true love in helping others less fortunate. Later on in life our paths crossed again in Springville when we moved into her ward! There, I met her beloved children who meant everything to her!!!

■■ Sending my eternal friendship and love to her children and siblings. We'll see here again…thanks to our loving Savior, Jesus Christ. ■ Rosemary Robison Evans

Sending my heartfelt love and condolences to Caroline and Issac and all the Jenkins family. Nancy was so talented, gifted, intelligent, capable and darling. She was a devoted mother and grandmother. She was a loyal friend. She loved the Lord, her family and friends. Her smile was endearing and her quick wit made things fun. She was always so kind to me. I cherish the many, many memories I have with Nancy. Sadly, I will not be able to be at her funeral next week. I will be helping with grandkids in NC. My heart is grieving. I will miss sharing in the celebration of her remarkable life with all of you.

I met Nancy late in her short life. I had the pleasure visiting her several times and I was able to help her with a few things. I saw in her a unique power and a deep caring for her Savior. She was a sweet person with a great power of conversation. She would always inquire about you and ask for details as she chatted. I discovered that she liked the Fillets-o-Fish at MacDonalds on a couple of trips back and forth to the Emergency Room at the hospital. She was in poor health the entire time I knew her and my heart went out to her in her moments of distress. I'm glad I was able to get to know Nancy. Even though she may have been ill I was still able to see greatness and a powerful testimony within her. I send my sympathies to her family. I take comfort in knowing that she is no longer tormented by her illnesses.

I met Nancy when she attended my graduate consulting class at BYU. The task of the class was to act as real advisors in providing large institutional sources of funding for FINCA, a global microfinance orgnanization. As the leader of the team, Nancy displayed rare, unparallelled, and remarkable leadership. We followed her on various projects and jobs after she graduated. She was passionate about the causes of social justice. But more than that, she was even more devoted, absolutely devoted, to her son and daughter. I never met them. But I feel like I know them well. I wonder if they really know how much she gave for them? I cannot say. Perhaps they will never know. For all of her fine career accompishments, in my opinion, she did not receive the recognition she deserved. Nor did she find a job worthy of her world class talents. Somehow, she seemed to blame herself when anything did not go perfectly. Few will ever know the gem that we have just lost. This world was never meant for one as beautiful as Nancy.

My mom Florence and I had the privilege of meeting Nancy in Sri Lanka and I Angeline visited her family home in Salt Lake city. She was full of fun and had a very big heart. Our deepest condolences to Nancy Jenkins Krieger's Family. She is free from pain and suffering. May God have mercy on her soul and grant her eternal rest .

Dear Caroline and Isaac, How grateful I am to have known your wonderful mom in this life. She was always a joy to be around, her funny humor and great laugh always made me smile. Her testimony of the Savior was amazing and will continue to touch so many lives on her next chapter of life beyond the veil. May you both know how proud she was of both of you and how deeply she loved being your mom! Praying you will find peace and strength as you navigate this difficult change. Much love your way ❤■

Dear Diane, Carolyn, Julie, David, Isaac & Caroline, We were so saddened to hear of the passing of your sweet mother and sister, Nancy. What a spunky and fun-loving person we have always known her to be - and how sorry we were to hear of her recent health challenges and sudden decline. Our hearts go out to you at this time of great loss, and are sorry we could not be there to attend her services or to hug you all in person. Our memories of the many years we spent camping, boating, and traveling together will always be some of our most cherished. Know that you will always be in our hearts and prayers. With much love ~

Dear Kreiger Family: Your dear mother taught our son Keith on the violin. This was back in the day in 1998-99 before we moved to Idaho. We have always loved your mother and thought highly of her. Our condolences. Sincerely, Craig and Elizabeth Crandall Chesterfield, Idaho

I’m so sorry to hear of Nancy’s passing. She was my first American friend and missionary companion in my native country of Singapore. She was tenacious, creative, adventurous, hardworking, had a quick wit and a great sense of humor, and was kind to me. I will miss her so much but have faith that I will see her again. May God’s blessings of peace and strength be with her loved ones.

I was friends with Nancy in college in Chi Omega and lost touch with her after that. I am saddened at her passing. She was always a great force for good and a loyal friend. I know that her mission will continue in heaven and she will be cheering her family on from the other side. I love you Nancy! And I look forward to seeing you again.
