

Neal Loyle Adams

January 17, 1927 ~ January 24, 2021

My heart is sad and my condolences and love go out to you, Neal's family. I became friends with Neal at the Lion's Club as I rode my stationary bike with Neal often at my side. He was always so friendly and extremely interesting to talk to as he had so many, varied life's experiences. We shared books we'd read, experiences at Northwestern, war stories, political topics, sports and much more. As I leaned more about Neal, I told him he should write a book or at least he should write his story for his posterity. He challenged me to do the same. We would often greet each other with "how many pages have you written?" He told me he had actually started, I really hope he did. He talked very tenderly about caring for his wife and his love for her. I am grateful for this wonderful gentleman who entered a little of my life. Thank you,

I will sorely miss one of my best friends and confidants. He was truly a wonderful man who loved his family dearly. I have never met anyone who was such a great listener and to whom you could tallk to just about anything. I know that he will be one of the Lord's favorites.

My Condolence to Marilyn and Family. It was my pleasure to be a friend of Neal and Marilyn. We spent many hours on the tennis court and golf course together. Traveled with them to DeFuski (?) Island. They are a part of my treasured memories. . Neal was an exceptional Gentleman, always a pleasure to be with. I am honored and fortunate to have enjoyed our friendship. (Thank you Mrs . Willkinson for the thoughtful phone call.)

I was an employee of Dr Adams for 10 yrs and would have stayed with him longer, had he not retired. Beyond a fair and generous employer, Dr Adams was a friend and mentor, a prince among men. I will never forget his humble presence or his zest for life.
