

Nolan Jack Campbell

September 12, 2023 ~ June 11, 2024

Your sweet little spirit will be missed. You were super special to your family and friends

- Brenda Newbold

My heartfelt condolences go to you and your family. Im sure Nolan was blessed with an abundance of love in his short time of life. I've loved following your posts on social media. You are such wonderful parents with such beautiful children! I'm sure one day Nolan will be ready to welcome you all back with him! ❤■

- Carol Stark

So so sorry for your loss May God comfort you through this time

- Priscilla Howerton

Our deepest condolences and our hearts are prayers are with you all. Rocco, Tami, Morgan and Kasey Meraglia

- The Meraglia Family

Our deepest, deepest condolences to you all. Though we never could meet Nolan, his presence in our hearts was always strong. May God heal your pain and give you peace knowing He is with Nolan and all our angels. We will never forget this warrior. We love you all.

- Catherine Martinez and Family

We are so very sorry for your loss. What great parents and examples you are for having patiently endured so many health trials with your sweet boy. May you find peace in knowing that you will meet his amazing spirit again.

- Tracy Young

It is so heartbreaking for my earthly self to see this beautiful boy and know you have lost him... But so inspiring to my spiritual self. He just went back home... and you, Meredith, will be able to raise him, help him grow up in the millennium. You are so amazing! You worked so hard. You enjoyed him too. I love how you have is life recorded on Facebook. I have loved following your Champ page. You are an inspiration Meredith! I love you.

- Lauralyne Chord