Norman Wayne Sackett

July 18, 1955 ~ November 17, 2022

Rose, I am so sorry, Norman was a wonderful man and friend to Brent and I. My prayers and heart are with you. I'll not be able to be with you because I'm trying to get over COVID. But all my love is with you and your family.

- LuRhea Davis

Hi Rose, My heart goes out to you and your family at this time. It was a privilege to have you and Norm on our church history tour and to be able to get to know you a little bit. Prayers for you and your family and that you find comfort, peace, and joy from your wonderful memories of a valiant man.

I am so sorry to hear of Norm’s passing. We enjoyed getting to know Rose, Norm and Bonnie on our Church History Tour. So very glad you all were able to attend. So grateful for our savior and the atonement. We knew Norm is doing good work on the other side of the vail. My thoughts and prayers are with you Rise. You will feel lost for a while but knowing you, you will find plenty to keep you busy. I’ll be thinking of you.

- Jeanie Ruegsegger

Rose, and family, I'm so glad to hear your husband was finally released from the pain and suffering of cancer. I'm so grateful for all he has done for my grandson and his family. This will be quite a transition period for you, but remember others are here for you and you're definitely not alone. The Lord will bless you as you seek His wisdom and know Norman will continue to watch over your precious family. Thank you for the opportunity to meet both of you in the past. My prayers are with you all.

Norm was a great example to us all. His positive nature and patience through much suffering was inspiring to us. I was friends with Norm for nearly 50 years. We will miss his laughter, his goodness, and his quiet strength as well as his testimony and steadiness in the gospel. Rose and family: We are so sorry for your loss. We have been blessed to know you and Norm. May you have peace and comfort at this time. We are assured that Norm will be with you eternally.

- Brent and Camille Miller

We are so sad to hear of Norm’s passing, Rose. Norm truly brought out the spirit and love we had on the Church History Tour. You and Bonnie are sisters we all need to emulate and were such loving examples of support and love for each other and especially Norm. Prayers and love to you, Tom & Diane
