

James "Jim" Patrick McDonald

August 24, 1966 ~ May 24, 2020

Jimmer was always the life of any family gathering and he will be greatly missed. Jim knew how to show genuine love and interest in every person he met. He endured a lot, but always tried to keep a smile on his face. Whether it was a bad joke, a crazy story, a funny facial expression, or some sort of bodily noise, he usually made people laugh. Our family was lucky to have him in our lives. Love you Jimmer...until we meet again. ♥■

Ann and family, Please know, Jim made a giant impact in my life. We made fast friends when we were 7-8 years old. I always thought of him as my brother from another mother! I was always made to feel welcome in his life, even if I didn’t know of his deep pains. May you find continued peace and comfort during this time and always! God be with you all!!

- Brad Macdonald

I feel I'm a better person for having known Jim. He'll be missed.

Ann. I didn't know Jim. However I have known you for some time working together. I wanted to send you some love and huge hugs today and tomorrow. And forever. You are one of the kindest and most serving towards others. In hopes to bring some peace and love to you. I know Jim is in a place now free of his struggles. And because of them he was not able to do the things he wanted for you in the ways he desired on earth. However in knowing Families are forever. Part of his serving and care now will be for you and your family. In ways Heavenly Father allows. He can now serve and be close by in spirit. Praying. Ministering. Loving and spending time with his family in other ways now he can. Where in other times he couldn't. I know Heavenly Father loves you. And the peace you feel is from Him. Love you Ann. My heart is with you. Tauni Poppleton.

Ann and family,I was heartsick when I learned of Jim's passing.Knowing Jim since we were 7 or 8 years old, I am sorry we didn't stay in touch these recent years.Jim was a solid influence in my life, I came to regard him as my brother from another mother! I know that the tears of sadness and loss on this side, are being met with tears of joy on the other! My regard for him has always extended to you and the girls as well! May God extend His peace upon you and your family! With loving arms! Brad

Ann, I'm still reeling from hearing the news of Jim's passing. He was one of my favorite humans! I wish I had of been able to spend more time with him. I was honored to be his priesthood and scout leader in El Paso. Jim taught me so many things about life and friendship. I'll love him and you forever! Jim's testimony of the Gospel was strong and he was a good example in how we should follow Christ. I will be forever grateful for Jim's being part of my life! I'm so very sorry for you loss.

We loved him and his smile and his laugh. He was never still and always fun to be around. His heart was big. We were so blessed to have him around, even when he and Nate were up to mischief. He brought light and laughter to our home and family.
