Oscar Wood Moyle IV

Feb. 5, 1972 ~ May 19, 2024

Becca, Ocky, and all of Wood's family, it's been a struggle to accept Wood's incredibly sad departure. I've sat next to him at every Westminster board meeting the past nine years. I will miss him terribly. My arms are around all of you.

- Muffy Mead

My sincere condolences to the family. It's a huge loss.

- Sam Sleiman

Wood's monstrous laugh will live in the heads and hearts of many long past his departure. I am so sorry for the loss.

- Zeke Dumke IV

I will miss my cousin, his joy, laugh and the sparkle in his eyes. I am saddened beyond belief with this loss. I am holding you and yours in my heart during this time and always. May his memory be eternal

I was heartbroken to hear of Wood's passing. I've only known him a few years, but he was always so welcoming and kind. He made me, and everyone else, feel like a close friend. I'm grateful for the time he mentored me on the Westminster University board. He was a wonderful friend and father, and his service in the community was inspiring. Becca, Ocky, and Emma I am so sorry for your loss.

I had the pleasure and knowing and working with Wood during his time with the Salt Lake City Department of Airports. He was well liked and had a great sense of humor. It is heartening to know that Wood went on to marry, have a family and do work that he cared about (he often spoke of the Burton Foundation, Natural History Museum, etc.). I extend my deepest condolences to his family and loved ones.

- Tamra (Oleson) Turpin

One of the kindest and gentlest people I have ever known. The best booming laugh that I ever heard. I will always remember you as my center in the paint. The best teammate anyone could ask for. Rest in Peace.

I adored Wood. He was my boyfriend in high school and after. I am so sorry that he passed so young. I was a kid who was extremely poor, who was a nobody. Wood and I really liked each other. I remember him as my friend who watched movies that he hated and who thought about military books and movies constantly. I'm so sad he has passed. Wood was my first love. I was glad he found someone he adored/ I'm so sad he's gone.
