I feel so badly that I can't be at Patsy's funeral… I'm out of town…but you will all be in my prayers . Patsy's obituary and photos were so special…what a special lady she was…& still is! ■ With much love, ❤■Sue Green Brown

The suddenness of Patsy's passing has deepened the grief of her not being with us anymore. I mourn with you, but also celebrate with you her faith filled life. There is not a more pure example of Christ's teachings than Patsy's day to day exchange with those she loved and strangers alike. Her rest is rich, sweet and complete. Continued prayers for the many that miss her warm and generous spirit. I love you Goates family.

David and Family, From times past on Ashton Circle we send you our love and prayers. Many memories are flooding through our minds at this time of the love and friendship we shared with you and Patsy, and the service we rendered together in P-6. She is a great lady and legacy. We are out of town and will not be able to attend the services. Richard/Claudia

I hope that someone in the family gathers all the talks/memories shared/messages given today celebrating Patsy and shares a copy with me. There is much to learn from each other as testimonies were given regarding Patsy and the legacy she has left of her love of the Savior, love of David and her family, and her love of the Temple. Patsy, you were always there.

David and family, Vickie and I attended Patsy’s funeral this morning, as you know, and were overwhelmed by the love and support ❤■ that we felt from you and your wonderful family for your wife, their mother, grandmother and great grandmother. I didn’t know Patsy well but I have felt of her love and affection for her family roots at the funerals of our grandchildren. You and your family have been greatly blessed by Patsy’s life and love and will continue to grow stronger because of her eternal influence. God bless and keep you all. Randy

Dear Goates family, I was deeply saddened to hear about the passing of your beloved mom. Losing a loved one is never easy, and my heart aches for you and your family during this difficult time. Though I cannot fully comprehend the depth of your pain, please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Your mom was a remarkable person, and her presence will forever be cherished in the hearts of those she touched. Her spirit and love will continue to shine through the memories you shared together. We believe in the eternal nature of families. May you find comfort in the knowledge that you will be reunited with your dear mom sooner than later. Until then, I hope you find strength in the support of your loved ones and the comforting embrace of our faith. With heartfelt condolences and love, Gómez and family,

Aunt Patsy, it was only a month ago we were in Grandma Julie's room as you faithfully assisted in seeing her transition to the other side, and you and I had our final interactions as Aunt and nephew on this side of the veil. Thank you for always being so welcoming, loving, and encouraging. I never heard you say anything negative of anyone even if everyone else was saying everything negative. You are a lighthouse. You are the definition of what it means to be Christlike. When I began my career you and Uncle David helped me navigate such a time in my post-mission, single and then newly-wed life, and coming to your home to talk with you was a cherished memory, talking to you while you wiped down the kitchen counters...I don't think I've ever seen you actually sit down. May you now rest that fully worn tabernacle and your Spirit soar in service and love in the next realm. I pray I live life well enough to meet you there. Your family is so blessed to have had you as their Mother, Wife, Sibling, Grandmother, and I'm so thankful for my Aunt Patsy, whom I'll miss. I love you.

Oh my sweet and wonderful older sister. How I loved and enjoyed knowing you for seven decades. We had so many wonderful times growing up, songs for hours on the player piano, swimming in the family swimming hole on the Provo, days at the Homestead, horseback rides, movies in Kamas, and playing games during June thunderstorms in the Uintas. A better sister never could a brother have had than you. Your love of Deity , the Restored Gospel, His Holy House , and your unfailing testimony stand as a beacon to all who had the honor of sharing your life. Rest for a moment, then minister tirelessly in the spirit to all of your bounteous loved ones, and inspire them with your love and goodness through our mortal sojourn. You are now an official angel , having been one for seven and a half decades on earth. I love and honor you as an adoring brother.
