It is with a heavy heart that I reflect on the passing of Aunt Pat, a truly kind and welcoming soul whose warmth touched all who knew her. Aunt Pat was a beacon of kindness, always there with an open door and a warm smile that made everyone feel at home. Her presence brought comfort and joy to our lives, and her absence leaves a void that will be hard to fill. I hold onto the countless cherished memories of time spent with Aunt Pat, each moment filled with the kindness and love she so freely gave. Her laughter, her thoughtful words, and her ability to make anyone feel special are treasures that I will carry with me forever.

While growing up, I was constantly at Aunt Pat's house. She always made me feel so welcome and was so patient when Abby and I would be loud during one of our many sleepovers. She would come in and tell us to be quiet more than once sometimes and not even raise her voice. I have such fond memories of her. I will miss her very much.
