

Paul Gibran Begum

October 18, 1935 ~ March 29, 2024

Paul was always an inspiration for me! Many lovely memories in Glendale ca!! He taught me many life skills! I always looked forward for him coming over spending the night ordering pizza and watchingv the j JOE PYNE SHOW! I WILL ALWAYS CHERISH AND LOVE MY BROTHER PAUL! HE WAS A PHILOPHER AND HIS INTENTIONS WERE ALWAYS THE BEST FOR OTHERS! HE LOVED HIS CHILDREN AND LOVED HIS GOD! HE DID THE BEST HE COULD ! WISH I COULD HAVE SPENT MORE TIME WITH HIM! Last time I had a good time was new years eve and new years Dat 2023 and 2024! He enjoyed my curry and my early Grey cardamom tea! He will be greatly missed , but, also greatly remembered! We love you, Paul, see you later, brother! Do sorry on the loss of your dear father!!! From the hawa family!

- Charlotte bey hawa

Paul - you ARE one of those rare people whom once you meet, you never forget. You will live in my memory while you enjoy the view from up above. Love and remembrance Angela

- Angela Smythe

To all the Bey Family. I am so sorry for your loss. My prayers and love are with you always. Vita lioce

- Vita lioce

All the family are in my thoughts and prayers. May God be your comfort, hope, and strength in the coming days. I have such a wonderful remembrance of the time Alex and I visited Paul and Yeonah in Utah. We had a great time all being together and I think Paul really enjoyed showing us around. There was also a pretty spot he took us to where his dog liked running to jump in the water. The family love shared will be a special memory to me. Hugs and prayers and love, Adele Bey

- Adele Bey

All the family are in my thoughts and prayers. May God be your comfort, hope, and strength in the coming days. I have such a wonderful remembrance of the time Alex and I visited Paul and Yeonah in Utah. We had a great time all being together and I think Paul really enjoyed showing us around. There was also a pretty spot he took us to where his dog liked running to jump in the water. The family love shared will be a special memory to me. Hugs and prayers and love, Adele Bey

- Adele Bey