Very sad to learn of the passing of our dear friend, Paul. His giant personality and affability were natural extensions of his intellect and tender heart. While his loss is mourned, his friendship will be forever cherished. Condolences to Sylvia, Henry and Greta.

I went to Law School with Paul, and for the three years of 85-88, I was happy and privileged to know him and Sylvia very well. We studied hard, but we had an awesome group of friends; we enjoyed many fun times. The Duggan family sends their deepest condolences and warmest regards to Sylvia, Paul’s children and family.

We have all been blessed with being a part of Paul’s life. I have many fond memories of living next door to Paul and Sylvia during law school. Our late night discussions were enriched by Paul’s intellect and warm sense of humor. He was truly a special individual. My deepest condolences Sylvia to you and your family.
