You will be missed. The neighborhood will miss your smile and wave as we went by. Always a great friend and loved but many. Rest in piece and thanks for the friendship. Your the best. But hugs

My Aunt Peggy was a devoted mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend. She led a life of service to her family; always tending to their needs with care and love. I have wonderful memories of her and the family. We loved her dearly and will miss her greatly, but she will remain with us. “Everyone must leave something behind when he dies, my grandfather said. A child or a book or a painting or a house or a wall built or a pair of shoes made. Or a garden planted. Something your hand touches some way so your soul has somewhere to go when you die, and when people look at that tree or that flower you planted, you’re there.” — Ray Bradbury
