Pete, and his father, were two of my best friends at the Smelter. I could share lots of stories, but I'll just say that he was always enjoyable to be around. First met him in the Reverbs, and then lots of time in the maintenance department. Every time I would past through the SLC airport security, I would always ask the workers how Pete was doing, and it was obvious the respect he held with them. I knew his Dad as a crane operator - funny guy!

Laura Adrina, It really hurts my heart, hearing of Pete. I was as i called him & many others aswell little Petties helper. Not only was it a experience but also a Hugh pleasure. Not only did i help him, he helped me in many ways he helped me in learning welding as well as life.. i had it good with him as he also new my father, brother. Both K.C.C. people. Again, my sorrows with his passing, He was a good man... Doug Kerr

Laura and Family, So sorry for your loss. Pete was a kind man and a great neighbor. I know my brother and myself appreciated all the kind thing he did for our mom and all the help he gave her. Our thoughts are with you and your family at this time.

Please know my heartfelt sympathy for you in the passing of Pete; I knew him as a man of true Integrity, honesty, skill and compassion for others in his working relationships at the Smelter. I was lucky to have work along side such a man. May peace be with you, and his memory a blessing.

- Ron Smith

My deepest sympathy. He has gone to see Ray, his parents and Grandma Eggertsen. Death-The Journey beyond life- There are remarkable similarities between birth and death. Bruce R. McConkie said: "We know that this great plan of progression called for birth which would provide a mortal tabernacle for our eternal spirits, and for a death which would free those spirits from the frailties, diseases and weaknesses of mortality." The words birth and death both describe movement. Birth describes our movement from the spirit world to mortality. Death describes our movement from mortality to the spirit world. With each movement we terminate our existence in one place and initiate our existence in another. When God sends forth a tiny soul To learn the ways of earth, A mother's love is waiting here— We call this wonder— birth. When God calls home a tired soul And stills a fleeting breath, A Father's love is waiting there This too is birth— not death

I am so sorry for your loss, Adrina. I will miss Pete. He was such a gentleman and he was always available to help with cleaning the building whenever I called. Even when he didn't feel really well, he would come for a short time. I know how hard it will be for you in the next few months. Just remember all the happy memories that you have had together. Please feel free to call me any time that you may need to talk to someone. Love you. LoRie

Good old pistol!!! I enjoyed working with the older people @ TSA . Especially Pete . Pete had a million stories wether it was hunting fishing kennicott golfing or what he loved the most HIS FAMILY !! I enjoyed hearing HIS stories. such a great guy to work with , funny he was so paranoid of those TSA recert test . Months before them he would start worrying. Lol He hated to work at the checkpoint ,, I was new to Utah when we rolled our TSA as (street people) but Pete welcomed me from day one. I've moved on and transferred to Tampa FI . I will remember our times we had together pistol !! Lindsey (Lin) Manis Tampa FI TSA
