I don’t know this Family. My name is Porter. I just got off the phone with Jake the father to confirm a gift that was delivered. I can’t stop thinking about Porter and his family. I just want them to know of my love for them even though I don’t know them. Special connection with others with the same name! P-man.. you will be missed, I’m sure of it!

I feel very blessed to know this beautiful family. Porter truly was a light, he had the most special amazing spirit. His joy when he was watching one of his shows was unmistakable, pure joy. I loved his reaction to his grandma or one of his parents attention, again…pure joy. He was truly and deeply loved, always will be. As we celebrate your short but beautiful life I’ll never stop being grateful you were born in to such a special loving family. Lucky ■ you ■❤■❤■❤■

Oh how we would have been there Jake to wrap our arms around you and give you and Brit a hug❣■❣■ I'm so sorry we just saw this! We loved meeting Porter at your dad's viewing and funeral. We could feel of his braveness and purity! You have a celestial boy as part of your family, what a privilege! Jake because we have known and loved you for years we saw and felt recently how Porter has shaped you into a remarkable man. We love and honor you

I feel so much love for your family and Porter's perfect spirit just by reading this beautiful tribute and seeing his precious smile. His impact on this earth reaches far beyond those who new him personally. I believe souls like his - though his body was limited - are truly perfect on this earth… now he is fully perfected in heaven. Your journey as his parents is truly inspiring. I hope during this season, when angels seem to dwell a little closer, that you're able to feel his angelic power near. Much love and sympathy for your beautiful family.

- Kimberly Clegg Martin

Dear Jake, Brittany and family, thank you for the beautiful and tender story of Porter's short sojourn on earth. He has transformed so many lives and touched so many hearts. Thank you for being the parents and family you are, for your determination and love and devotion to your children and to each other. You have been a light to us all. We will miss Porter. We are certain he is having fun with his Grandpa. Love, Aunt Christine and Uncle Ron Britt, I feel like I know you. I think I only formally met you once at your parents home in Holladay when we had a sister missionary reunion of sorts. Morgan was my greenie and she taught me so much. I have occasionally seen your posts that Morgan has shared and my heart has always smiled. He just lit up every photo! My youngest son is named Parker after a buddy of mine named Parker that had something called Palister Kilian which is a chromosomal defect, not genetic. But Porter reminds me of Parker and the light he is in my life, especially when I needed someone to love and care for. Your heart truly swells with love. All of Gods children are so special and so lovable. But they believe we grow our capacity to love when someone needs us (they don't back talk■) and they bring such a light. I know I always felt the veil thinner and it often seemed as if he was talking and laughing with the angels. I don’t know if these are the words that will help, especially from a stranger, but I feel so close to your heart because of Porter. He is now a very special Angel in Heaven, I believe, and I know the world is definitely better having had Porter in it! I can’t imagine the pain and emptiness you are currently feeling, my only words of condolences are, be grateful we live in the 21st century and we can look at pictures and videos. I am a big fan of the ability to love and re live memories, as it were. My heart goes out to you and your family and I know you will get through it, not ever missing him or the whole in your heart, but that you will continue to live a special and happy life, in spite of missing him for a while.
