

Devin Jon Olmos

March 18, 1995 ~ May 28, 2020

We are so saddened by the loss of Devin. He was such a good friend to Connor and we all have many happy memories of him. Many things have been said about his big heart, infectious laugh and bright smile, but I want to add that he was always very respectful to us and a joy to have around. My heart is breaking for all of you. Jeri Eastman

Kassie, Steve and family, I am so sorry for your loss. I am praying for your family at this challenging time. I know Devin will be greatly missed by the entire family and that he will leave a void in your hearts that will never be filled. It always seems more difficult when it's a child and not in the natural order of things. Again I am truly sorry for your loss. Sincerely, James M. "Mitch" Sewell (Sally's friend from Las Vegas)

There is nothing that fills the hole in our heart(s)/life(s) that is created by death. But the pain of that void can be a bit easier because of your love for Dev, laughter in his honor as you/we remember his life here, his twinkling eyes and infectious smile, warm hugs of love, & all things that made Dev who he is. Remember he is always beside you, in the wind in your hair, the sun & rain on your cheek, the butterfly ■ on the wind is a reminder our loved ones are never far. My heart, love & thoughts are with all of the family. Love Always Aunt Meg-Uncle David

I am so sorry for Devins family. You truly raised a great young man. I met Devin back in high school I had him for several classes. He always asked about my day. And asked if I ever needed help or needed something from the cafeteria. It hurt my heart to see him go so soon. He was just barley living and had so much for him. May his soul Rest In Peace & never be forgotten. He is well known and thank you man for always hearing me out when I needed someone to talk to. I wish I have stayed in contact with you. See you soon bud!
