

Quincie Cole Holman

April 7, 2004 ~ October 23, 2024

My heart goes out to you all, the loss of a son ,and brother is heartbreaking.. God’s blessings be with you all now and always.. ❤■♥■

- Lenda - Keysaw Asay

Quince was one of the biggest role models in my life. I wouldn’t be half the person I am today without his guidance. He taught me the importance of showing up and working hard. Quince will always live on in many people.

- Samuel Bousfield

Quincie was a beloved friend and classmate at Highland High! He will be terribly missed and I send my condolences to his family during this devastating time.

- Andrew Sonzini

There are no words to express that say how I feel about his transcendence.I am sending you ALL the love light strength and hugs to help you all in your darkest time.I love you all no matter the time distance or space.Until the next realm rest easy Q

- Toy

No one should go through a hard time like this one. Quincie always has a way of making people laugh, his contagious smile always lit up the room, and his confidence was overwhelming. These qualities will be missed. Rest easy

- Anthony Gibson

Felicia, Carson and I so loved you and your boys. How could you not. Quincie will not be forgotten. He is such a handsome boy who was an incredible athlete. We are forever grateful he was in our lives. Sending you and the Boys all our love and prayers. Love Always, Carson (Butch) & Tenille Butcher

- Tenille Butcher

I had played football growing up with Quincy he was always a kind ,caring and wise person. I also have two younger brothers. His youngest brother was friends with mine growing up as well. Whenever I had seen him we would talk about them. I always sensed and seen his love for his brothers. Sending my thoughts and love to his family ♥■

- Ezra abalos

Felicia, Carson and I so loved you and your boys. How could you not. Quincie will not be forgotten. He is such a handsome boy who was an incredible athlete. We are forever grateful he was in our lives. Sending you and the Boys all our love and prayers. Love Always, Carson (Butch) & Tenille Butcher

- Tenille Butcher

Sending my condolences to Zachery and Felicia, the extended Holman and Beamish family, and all of Quincie's friends, may all of your great memories of Quincie put a smile on your face and in your heart, may God guide all of you through this difficult time. R.I.P. Quincie

- Nancy Johnson